- THEME -

Each year millions of magazines are read by Americans. These periodicals entertain people, make them laugh and cry, as well as informing and educating them. Because of the vital role magazines play in our everyday lives, their influence upon the thinking of the average man, and the need for more and better reading material for the public, we have selected magazines as the theme of this yearbook.

DEDICATION

AD

MULTOS
ANNOS

1960

It is our pleasure to honor a man who has dedicated his life to the service of God and youth. He has worked unceasingly to instill in those under his guidance the principles of Christian charity and to form the character that will later dominate their lives. It is with deep appreciation for his service to the youth of St. Joseph's Academy that we dedicate this yearbook to Bro. Michael Ray on his 50th year in the Marist Congregation.

Not only has Bro. Michael given fifty years of his life to the service of the Church, but he has also worked untiringly to establish and further the cause of Scouting at St. Joseph's. Brother has received several awards for his Scouting achievements and only recently he was given the Silver Beaver Award, Scouting's highest award to a volunteer worker. We all wish to congratulate Bro. Michael on his Golden Jubilee and wish him the best of luck in his future endeavors.

GOLDEN JUBILEE

A Pontifical High Mass was celebrated on Jan. 17 for Bro. Michael's intentions.

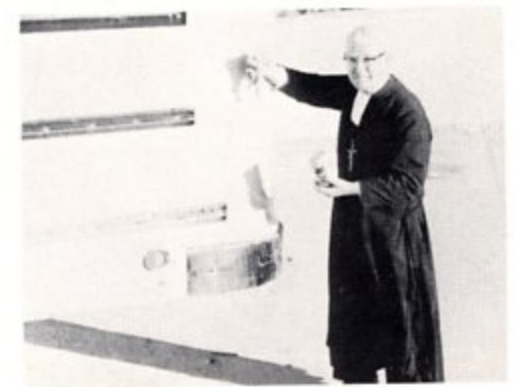

Guests enjoy themselves at Bro. Michael's Golden Jubilee Banquet on Jan 16.

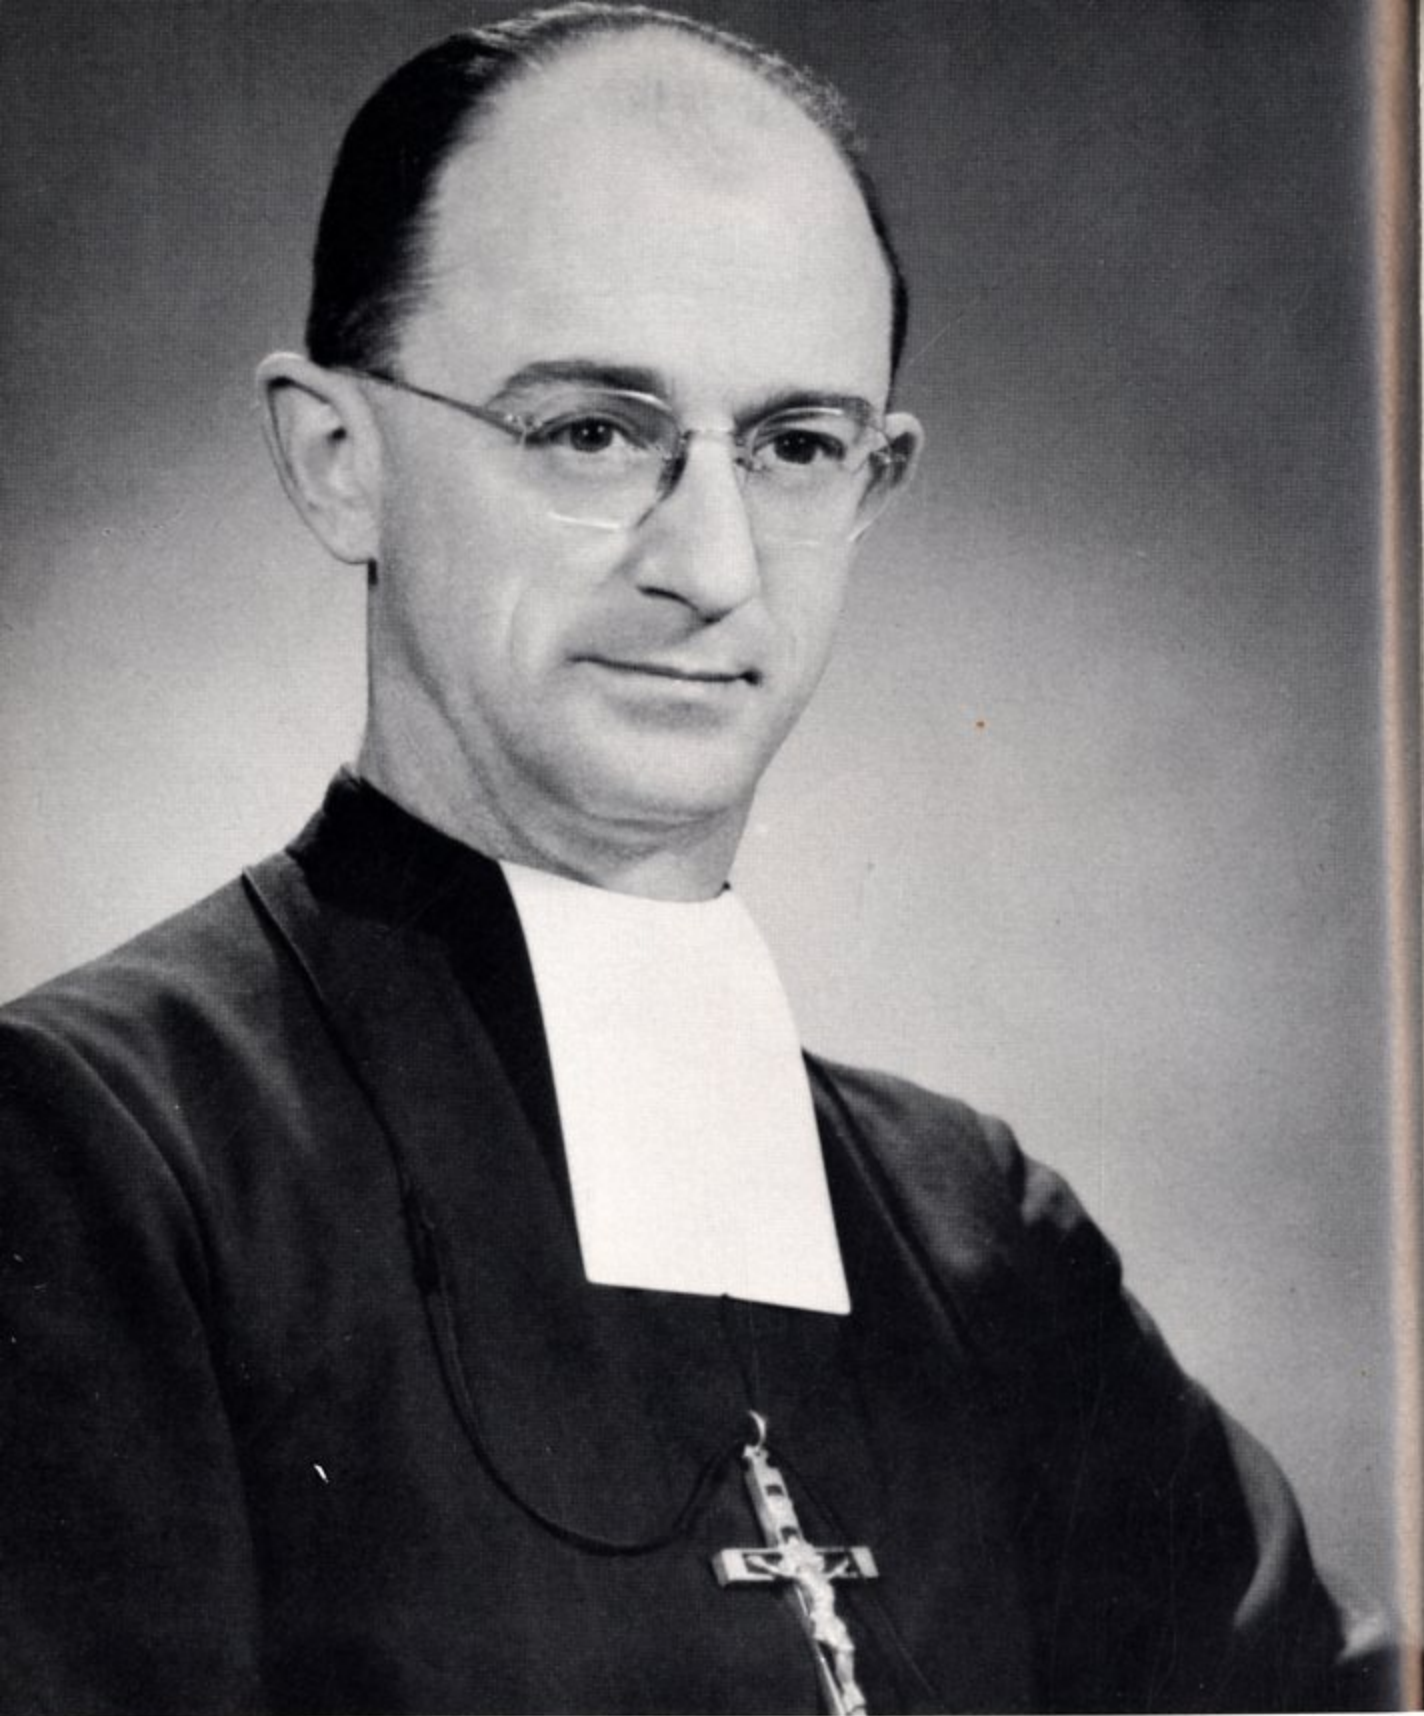

Bro. Michael receives the St. George Medal in Corpus Christi for his outstanding scouting work.

Bro. Michael's Scouting interests are marked by his encouragement of youth to work hard.

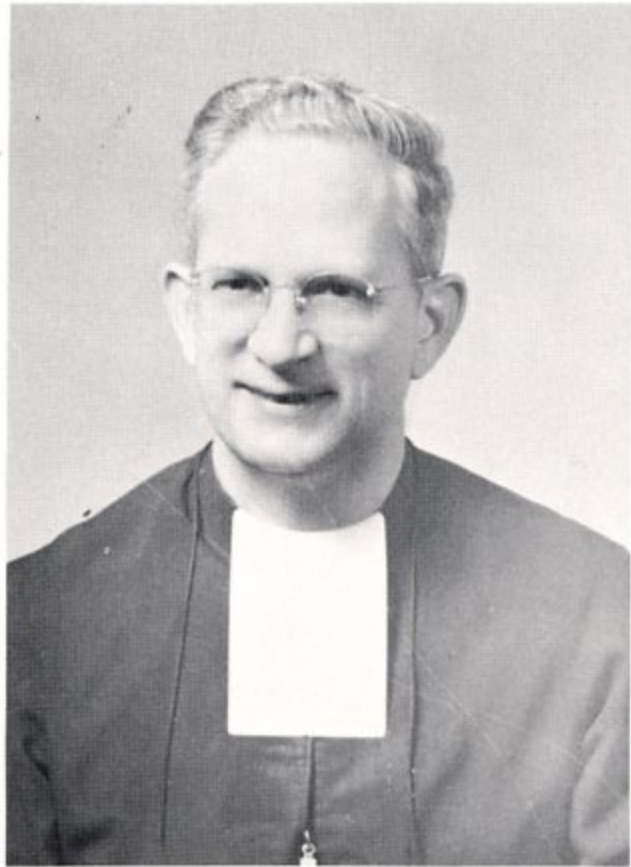

Brother scrubs down the bus before its morning run.

1960 ANTLERS

Although the Antlers did not have a very successful year, they still displayed spirit, hustle, and determination throughout the entire season. Numerous injuries plagued the Antlers all season and they were never able to show the full potential of their fighting team. The Antlers, although outmanned, and outweighed finished the season with this thought in mind: "For when the Great Scorer comes He will score not whether you won or lost, but how you played the game."
