The Maroon and White

St. Joseph's Academy
Laredo, Texas

From its founding to the present, Laredo has retained deep and traditional ties with Spanish culture. Now, as it turns toward modernity, it begins a blending of this heritage with the great American desire for progress.

There is now a fervor for building as projects are conceived of and created with great rapidity. The Civic Center is the symbol of this new movement towards the future, and yet its style is basically of a Spanish nature.

A new expressway leads to the heart of the city, and beautiful apartment houses are in operation, under construction or in planning stages all over the city. The future promises new and exciting prospects for the continuance of this city's desired growth.

Our Yearbook to Brother
John
McNamara

Brother Paul John has been a friend and advisor of the Class of '66 for many years. He has been with us since Junior High and now, happily, he is our Homeroom Teacher in Senior year. Brother's patient teaching, counseling and judgment are admired and respected by the Senior Class. Thus it is with great pleasure that we dedicate this yearbook to him.

Brother John, our new Principal talks to some parents at a parent-teacher's meeting.

Foreword

The year approaches a close, and we of the Staff as well as our fellow Seniors have a million memories that shall long be with us. It is a long road that ends in graduation, and the way is full of happy times, and sad, hard work, and gay frivolities, and all infused with a joy in living. Now this time is come to an end, and we who are going on to a different world wish to spark a few of those memories in these pages so that we, and you, will have a record of the year, 1966.

Superintendent's Message

I wish to join with the parents and friends of the graduates of 1966 in congratulating you and in wishing you every success in your life work. 1966 demands much of its young graduates, for the problems and crises have increased in number and seriousness during this year, but you will have the courage to face undaunted these demands as long as you remain faithful to your ideals and to the christian principles St. Joseph's Academy has attempted to instill in you with its God-centered training. May Christ and His Mother be with you always and bless your new career with the graces of selflessness and spiritual joy that will spell out your happiness.

Principal's Message

Dear Graduates,

When looking back to the first year that I came to teach in St. Joseph's Academy, I recall how favorably impressed I was by my first seventh grade home room class. In the years that followed I often had those same boys for different fields of mathematics, and when it came to their senior year in high school, we found ourselves together again in our last home room class at St. Joseph's. The fact that you are the first class of graduates that I have ever had in their last year of high school will always make the class of '66 a very special one in my memory. May God give you His many graces in your years to come.

Congratulations Seniors . . .

Now it's time to plan for the future. And whether your plans are settled, or not, remember this: your own South Texas is a land of promise.

Today, there are many opportunities for trained and ambitious young men and women. New industries are moving into South Texas . . . established industries are growing. Accept the challenge - move forward with South Texas.

Central Power and Light Company is proud of the hundreds of graduates of South Texas high schools and colleges who are on our electric service team . . . working and building for a greater South Texas.
