FOREWORD

In the course of our nation's history man has always had hope. The founding fathers of America set up a democratic government with the intention of passing on a better life to coming generations. Their hope was in the future. They didn't see in it dull, symmetrical forms, but an ever-changing sequence of improvements based on the original idea of a government by the people.

Today our future, though clouded by Communism, is still forging forward. The youth of today see yesterday only as a foundation for greater things to come; they realize that it will require tremendous effort on each individual's part, but they believe that they will succeed. Tomorrow's adults keep the dream of freedom alive in Eastern Europe, Cuba, and China. Tomorrow's adults are posterity's hope and mankind's salvation.

Such are the students of Martin High School, and it is to these students that we proudly present the 1963 edition of La Pitahaya.

In Memoriam . . .

Mrs. Bennett Retires

After many years of service in the Laredo Public Schools, Mrs. Floy G. Bennett retired in May of 1962.

Mrs. Bennett received her B.A. Degree from Howard Payne and was Head of the History Department.

La Pitahaya awarded Elizabeth Sorrell, Journal sponsor and past sponsor of the yearbook, the dedication because of her outstanding contributions to Martin High School.

During her high school career, the Laredo Journal, which she edited, tied for first place in the state.

She has taught at Martin High School since 1933, and from 1937 until last year, she sponsored the annual. Mrs. Sorrell's teaching career began in 1931 when she spent two years at Christen Junior High School before transferring to high school.

Last summer Mrs. Sorrell was awarded a Wall Street Journalism Fellowship to study under De Witt C. Reddick, head of the Journalism School at the University of Texas.

This year's Journal has reflected her added knowledge, winning All Texas Rating at Texas High School Press Association in December.

Besides sponsoring the Journal, Mrs. Sorrell is Society Editor for South Texas Citizen, and a member of Delta Kappa Gamma, American Association of University Women, Tuesday Music and Literature Club, St. Margaret's Guild, and Laredo Historical Society.

Dedication
to
ELIZABETH
SORRELL

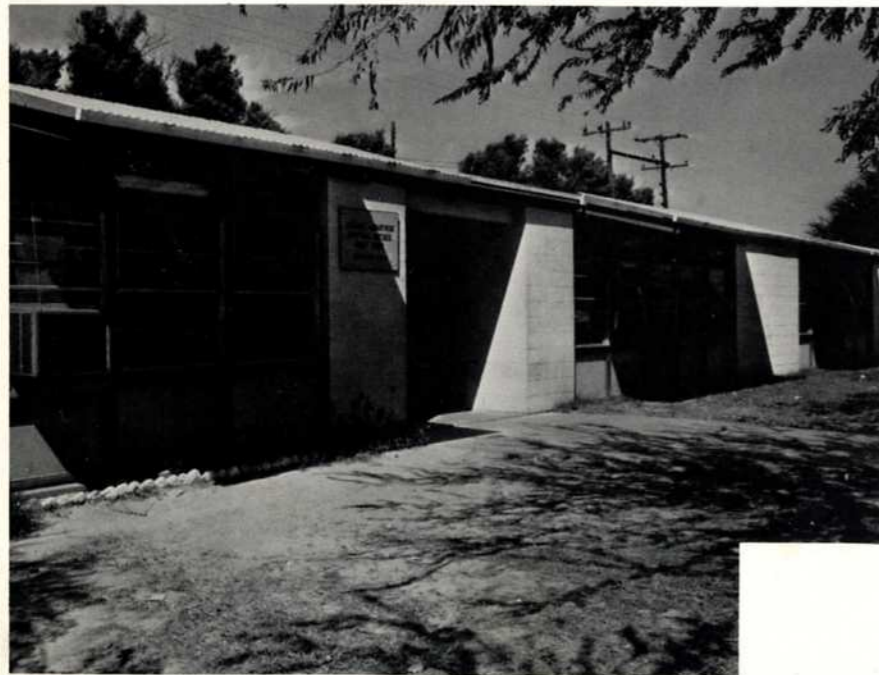

The bougainvillea blooms frame the home-making cottage which now sports air conditioning.

The metal workshop looks peaceful on a summer's afternoon.

Among the new buildings at MHS is the Military Science Building which houses the ROTC.

Campus Sights

A typical day at Martin High School is filled with excitement, suspense, humor, and work. Carroll Webb, Jesse Hernandez, Beto Pena, Tony Carranco, Joe Santos, Rodolfo Pena, Luis Botello, Rodolfo Decker, Roberto San Miguel prove to be good citizens by voting for the Junior Class officers.

"Work," is the byword of Courtesy Service Club girls Gloria Jean Farmer, Evangelina Saenz, and Cathie Whinton, as they assist Mr. Reyna on registration day.

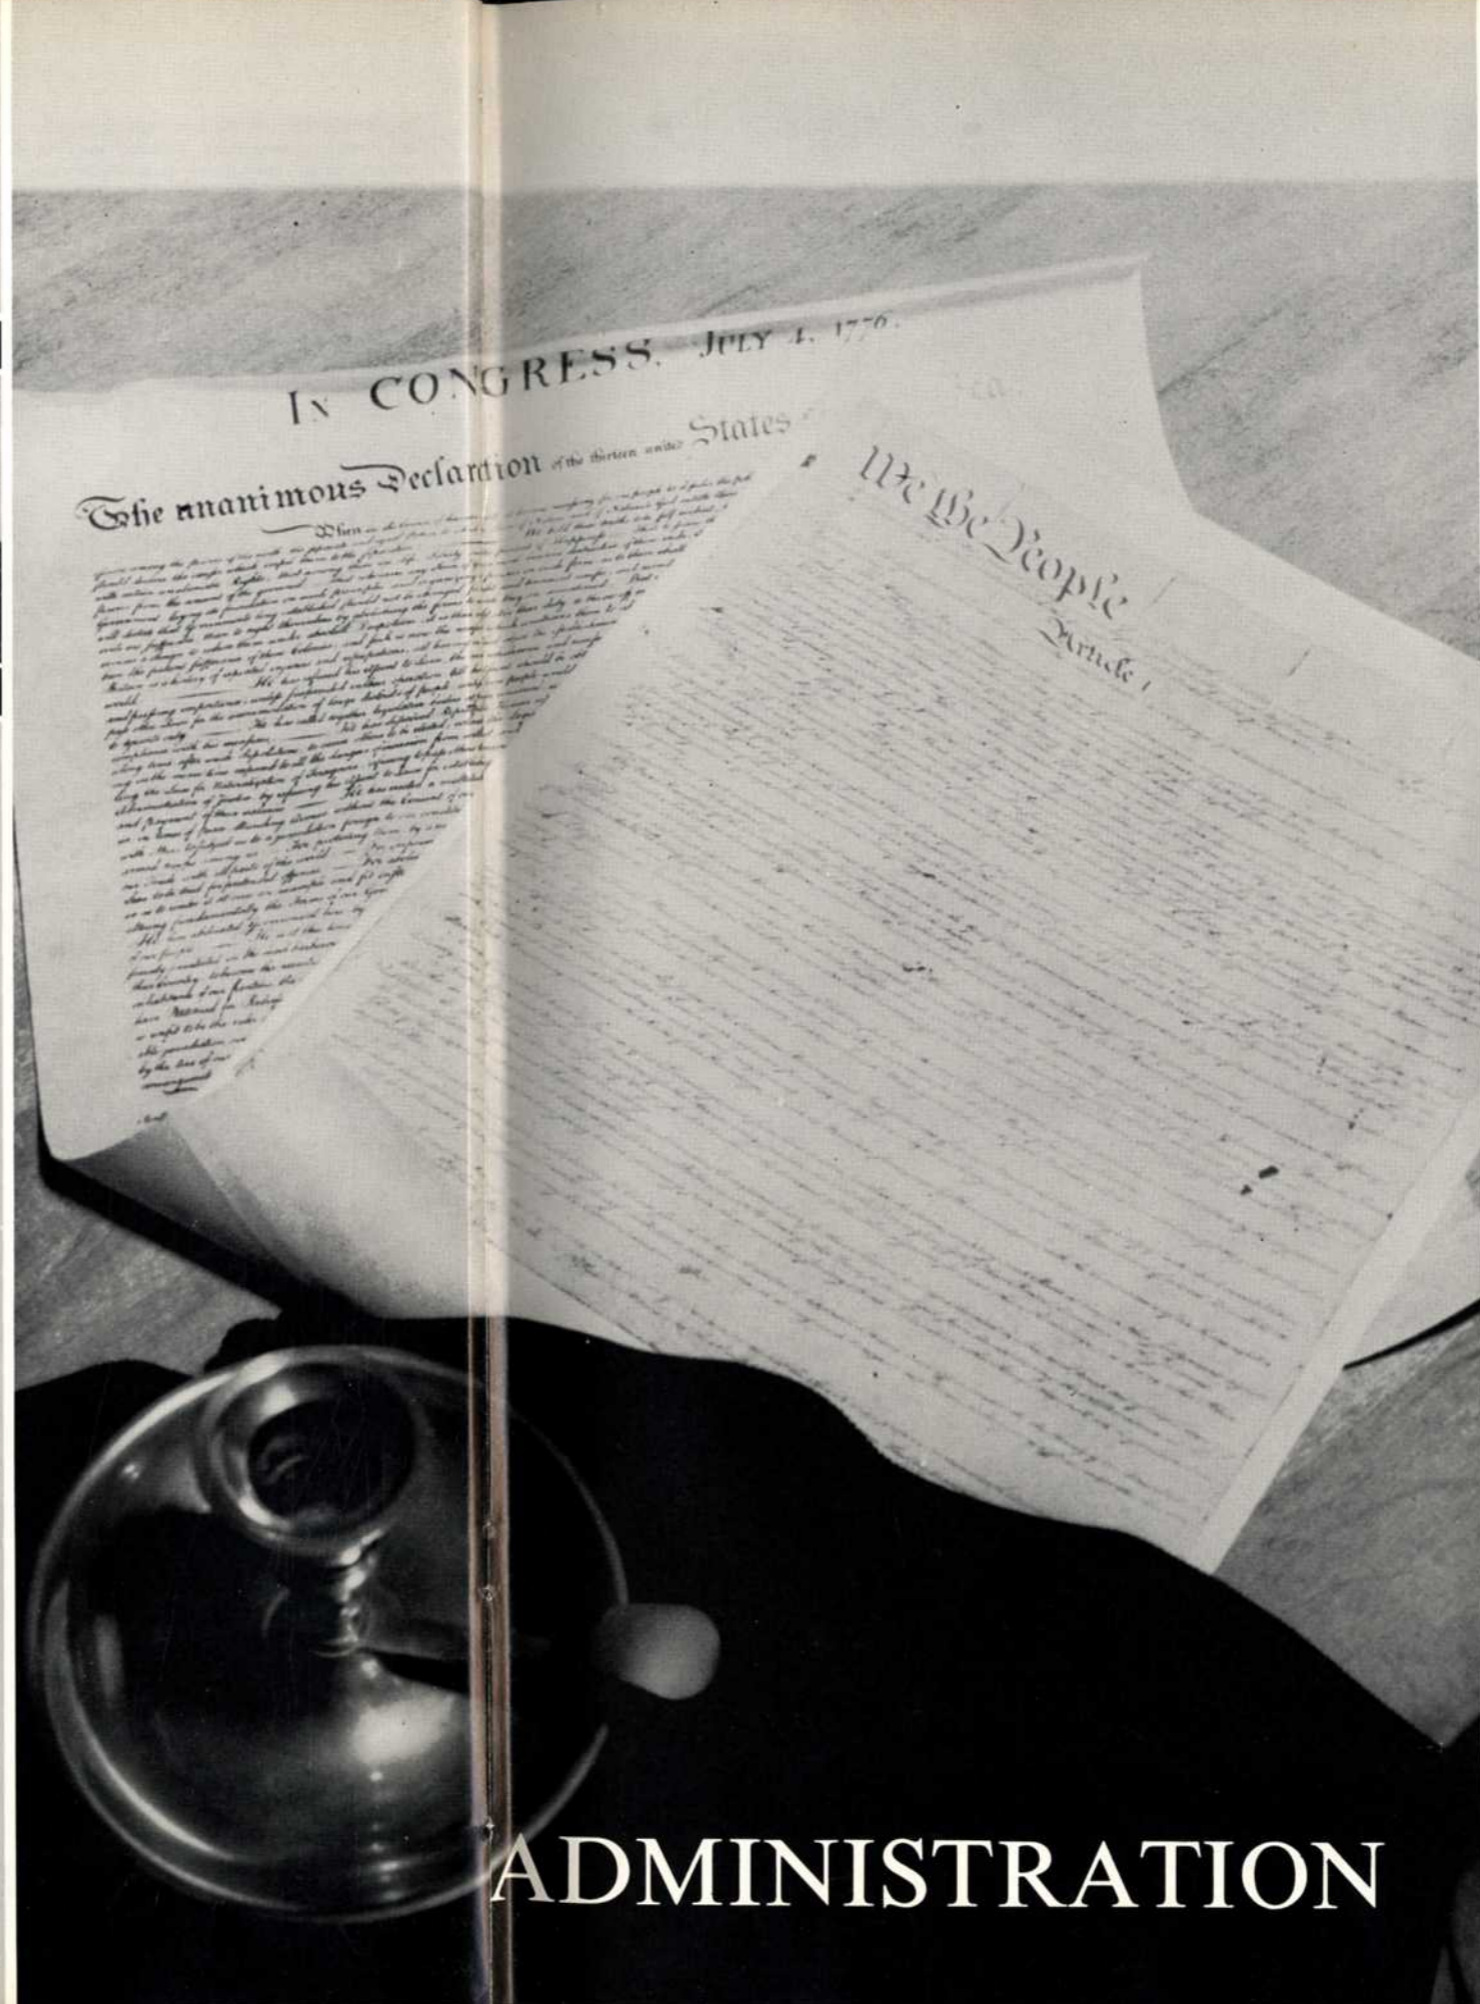

Belonging to the band is no easy task, but Jesse Meerscheidt and Ernesto Guajardo enjoy practicing daily.

A Typical Day at MHS

That leadership involves responsibility demonstrate Manuel Davila, Richard Rakoff, Chula Pugh, Jimmy Hines, and Sandra Guerra as they listen attentively at one of Martin High's club meetings.

Youth Appreciation Week for Candy Uribe, Ree Goodman, and Lupita Ramirez included an invitation to KGNS from Jay Manning. Candy is "in orbit" with the "Limbo Rock."

Faculty Has Fun at Christmas Party

Albert Ochoa, Mrs. Consuelo Lopez, Mrs. Ochoa, Fructuoso Barreda, and Mrs. Barreda smiled as a flashbulb interrupted their conversation.

One of the most fun-loving groups at any faculty function is the coaching staff. Showing off their pretty wives, Calvin Voelkel, Bill Batey, and Danny Villarreal look at the camera.

No longer Miss Valls, Mrs. M. E. Blake, our registrar, and her husband brought Miss Carmen Valls as their guest. Miss Antonia Valls and M. E. Blake were married on December 14, 1962.

Refreshments are always the life of the party. Miss Maya Guerra serves Carlos Garza-Gongora, Carlos Carranco, and Porter Garner. In the back are Miss Echavarría, Miss Guerra's guest, and Mrs. Barry.

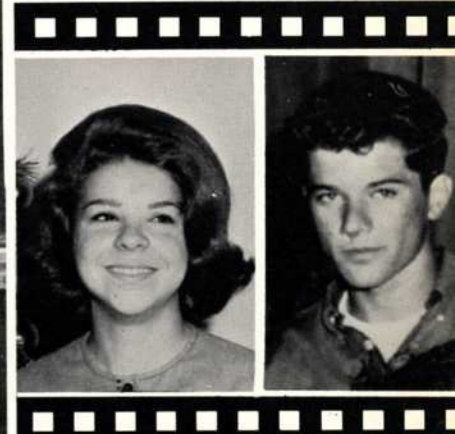

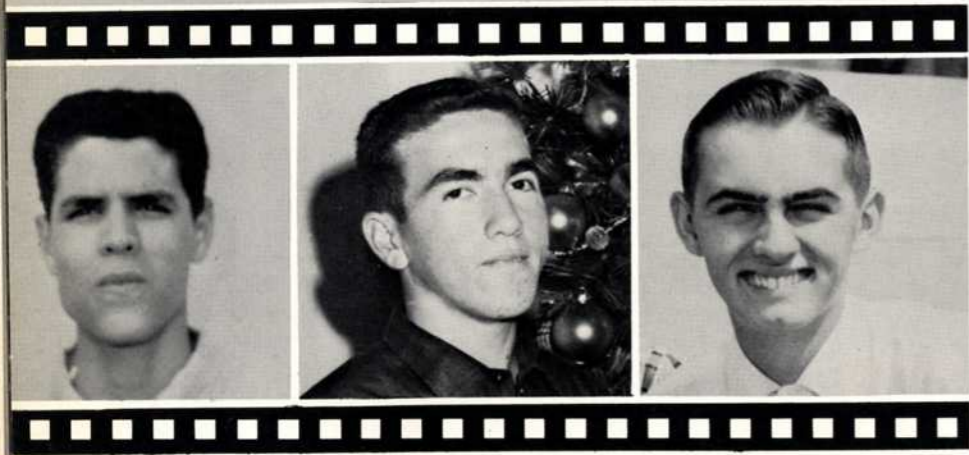

Mrs. Kate Spruiell, president of the Faculty Club, introduced the honor guests at the Christmas party.

Twisting and turning to the Valdez Brothers' Combo, Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Murillo show that teachers are up-to-date on dance steps. Johnny Gutierrez and his wife are in the background.

MARTIN HIGH SCHOOL LIBRARY
LAREDO, TEXAS

Patently waiting for admittance to the building in order to register are Richard Ibarra and Rodolfo Rios. Courtesy Service Club member Cathie Whitenton stands at her post.

Handing out schedules to the students are Sue Spruiell, Miss Elvia Garcia, Yolanda J. Pena, a student from Our Lady of the Lake, and our counselor Miss Cabrera.

Registration for 1962-63 Brings Record Enrollment

Griselle Singer filled out a textbook card while Arturo Davila and Manuel Perez wished registration away.

As Rosa Martinez looks on, Lee Johnson, Joyce Dickey, Rosa Vasquez, and Sylvia Rodriguez fill in blanks and blanks and still more blanks!

Lydia Benavides, Elma Hinojosa, and Dolores Santos leave MHS after they have gotten their books from the library. Another school year is underway!

• Graduation

The above picture shows Mr. J. W. Nixon, Superintendent of the Laredo Public Schools, as he speaks to the graduating class:

1962

Mrs. Fred Norris Addresses Graduates

The Class of 1962 listens attentively to one of the platform guest speakers.

Mrs. Fred Norris, President of the Texas State Teachers Association, was the main speaker for the Commencement Exercises of 1962.

LIC President Ray Laird, Mrs. Roque Rodriguez, Mr. Frank Staggs, Mr. Raymond Goodman, and School Board President Harold Yearly relax in the office before proceeding to the Commencement Exercises at Shirley Field.

Elma N. Lugo is the recipient of the Mary Frances Doss Scholarship presented by Martin High School Principal R. P. St. John.

Even a strong wind could not dampen the spirit of the Class of '62!

Norma L. Rodriguez receives her diploma from Mr. Harold Yearly.

School Board member Raymond Goodman presents his son, Raymond J. Goodman, with his diploma.

With a wide smile, Lydia Earles accepts her diploma from School Board President, Harold Yearly.

Graduation •

Mr. R. P. St. John, Principal of Martin High School, acted as Master of Ceremonies for the Graduation Exercises held on May 25, 1962.

The Bruno twins, Raquel and Rebecca, triumphantly lead the way for the Class of 1962!

Elected as the Junior Class officers for 1962-1963 were Robert Synder, president; Norma Mejia, vice-president; Sylvia Rodriguez, secretary; Esther Barrera, treasurer; and Henry Cavazos, reporter.

Future Farmers Gain Skill

Ernesto Laurel is shown feeding his steer. This is one of their daily chores at the F.F.A. farm.

One of the F.F.A. projects for this year was the annual livestock feeding test. The feeding test began October 25, 1962, and ended March 13, 1963, with the Second Annual Livestock Show and Sale held March 16, 1963.

Another of their projects was to build a new auction ring.

This fine organization is sponsored by Mr. Fidel C. Ramirez.

Pretty Cheerleaders Boost School Spirit

Enjoying their lunch at the Corpus Christi Press Day meeting were William Leyendecker, Cecilia Lewis, Beatrice Johnson, and Raymond Goodman.

Mrs. Sorrell, Miss Sanchez, and Alberto Cardenas attended the annual La Pitahaya banquet at Golding's.

Annual Events

Guests of the Annual Staff at the banquet were members of the Journal Staff. Sitting at the table are Norma Linda Rodriguez, Aimee Verduzco, Raymond Goodman, Beatrice Johnson, Sally Sturgis, Enrique Chamberlain, Mrs. Gutierrez, Mrs. Sorrell, and Miss Sanchez.

Waiting for the Youth Appreciation Parade to begin are Lupita Ramirez, Ree Goodman, Lydia Benavides, and Candy Uribe, Annual Staff representatives.

A. J. Reed of Newsfoto Publishing Company from San Angelo, Texas, gave a talk on "Good Yearbook Layout" at a conference in Kingsville.

La Pitahaya Staff Works Hard to Meet Deadline

Seen every morning in the halls during conference are Gracie Long, Lee Johnson, Norma Clark, Mary Claude Reyna, Cecilia Lewis, Janice Fitzgibbon, Mary Louise Webber, and Virginia Murillo collecting payments on the annual. The collectors are headed by hard-working and capable Virginia Murillo.

Formulating this year's annual policy, the editorial staff has added spirit, vim, and vigor to the 1963 edition. Top to bottom are Rickey Phipps, photographer; Charles Whittlesey, editor; Virginia Murillo, subscription manager; Cecilia Lewis, business manager; Javier Montoya, sports editor; Sandra Webber, copy editor; Evangelina Saenz, senior page editor; Lydia Benavides, sophomore page editor; and Yolanda Saenz, junior page editor.

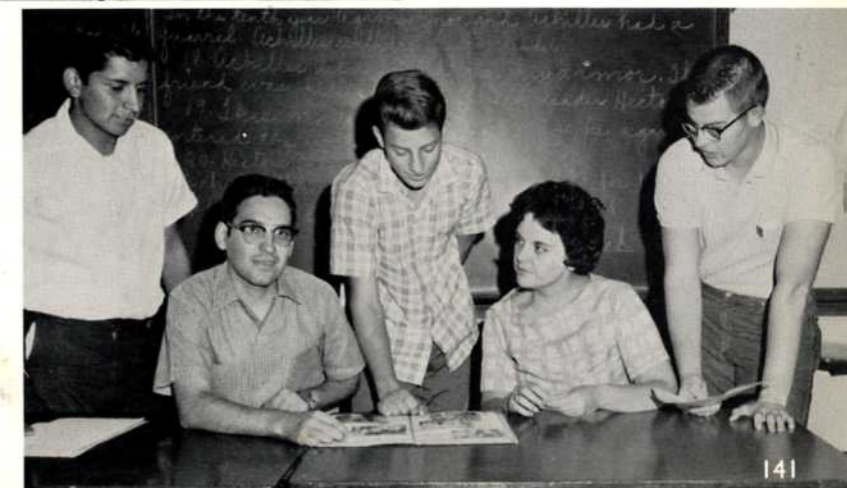

Filing name cards was a long and tedious job that was efficiently accomplished by Alberto Cardenas, co-sponsor; Candy Uribe, Lydia Benavides, Cecilia Lewis, Charles Whittlesey, Lupita Ramirez, and Virginia Rodriguez.

Seen filing name cards after school are hard workers Evangelina Saenz, Virginia Murillo, and Tom McKinney.

The job of preparing complicated layouts fell to such people as Eduardo Romo, advertising manager; Alberto Cardenas, Johnny Webber, Mrs. Gutierrez, and Charles Whittlesey.

Library Service Club Renders Service

Third Row: Miss Guizelda Duarte, sponsor, Guadalupe Mata, Jesus Gutierrez, Graciela Garza, Daniel Saucedo, Martha Pena, Lourdes Guajardo, George Gloria, Guadalupe Puente, Jose Sosa, Herlinda Vielma, and Irene Pena.

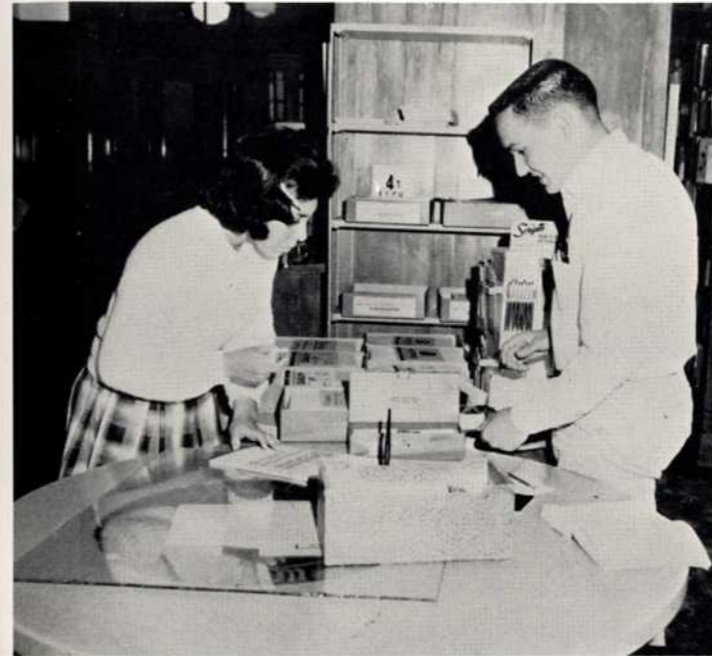

Officers of the Library Service Club are Susan Burr, vice-president; Betty Jean Smith, historian; Daniel Saucedo, parliamentarian; Elodia Flores, president; Graciela Garza, secretary; Maricela Leija, historian; and Teresa Perez, reporter.

Miss Guizelda Duarte sponsors LSC with the help of Miss Delia Westbrook, Miss de la Chica, and Miss Juanita Ortiz.

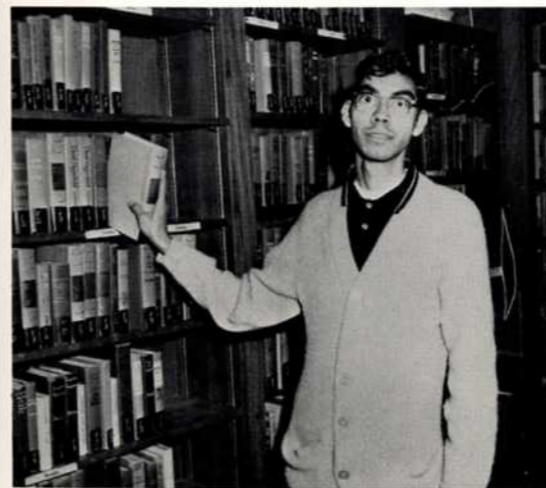

Selling of school supplies is another commodity that the library offers the school. Carlos F. De Anda, on the job at the entrance desk, sells theme paper to Lupita Garcia.

LSC Members Help Library Operate Smoothly

One of the LSC members who reads shelves to keep library books in order is Jesus E. Gutierrez.

The library offers an excellent opportunity to LSC members to become acquainted with library work and library arrangement; this knowledge will certainly prove useful in the future. Miss Juanita Ortiz, library clerk, helps a new assistant Mary Elva Guajardo learn the arrangement of the Card Catalog.

Journal

Selling $100 worth of ads is a must for every Journal issue; Edward Perrenot and Mike Hodges get ready to leave the campus for the business district on an ad-selling assignment.

Newspapers from other schools give students an idea of what poor and excellent papers are like. Students reading are Francisca Trevino, Irma Ruiz, Gaby Mendoza, Henry Cavazos, Pete Martinez, and Jorge Torres.

Editors Chula Pugh and Sandra Guerra work at the publishers, the South Texas Citizen, on the Friday and Saturday before the Journal is issued. Evidently they are pleased with the finished product, which won "All-Texas" rating this year.

Searching for ads are the Business Managers, Guadalupe Garcia and Carmina Danini.

Journal reporters go over lay-out and proof-read material. Penny Warren, Patti Bruni, Pat Mims (seated), Peter McCallum, and Tony Bruni are the budding journalists.

National Honor Society

Officers of the National Honor Society are Cathie Whitenton, secretary; William R. Leyendecker, vice-president; Rodolfo Hernandez, parliamentarian; Roberto Castaneda, treasurer; Sandra Guerra, reporter; Jesus Hinojosa, president. Not in picture is Barbara Porter, historian.

Membership in the Robert E. Lee Chapter, organized in 1954, is limited to fifteen percent of the Senior Class. Students must have an average of eighty-five or above to be placed on the scholarship list. They are then rated by faculty sponsors and sponsors of clubs and organizations on character, leadership, and service to the school. Students with the highest number of points become members. Sixty-two seniors and ten juniors are members, and six sophomores are probationary members.

To encourage scholarship the organization gives scholarships and entertains those who made the honor roll at a picnic. Recipients of the three National Honor Society Scholarships last year were Anita Sanchez, Benigno Gutierrez, and Hector Hall.

Miss McKinley, head of the math department and a dedicated teacher, sponsors the National Honor Society.

Concert Choir

Mr. Theron Kirk adds much to the prestige of Martin High School as an outstanding person, teacher, and composer.

Ask any choir member. They love to work under Mr. Kirk, as his love for music inspires all.

Thespian Club

OFFICERS: Jimmy Hines, president; Armi Ruiz, mistress of wardrobe; Richard Craig, keeper of the points; Teddy Leal, vice-president; John Hickey, parliamentarian; James Henry, sgt.-at-arms; Evelyn Goldberg, secretary; Mary Ellen Hickey, mistress of wardrobe reporter; Minerva Pena, mistress of wardrobe; and Mimi Torchin, reporter.

Edward Walker, Elma Hinojosa, and Mimi Torchin pity Gaby Mendoza, who plays the part of a deaf, blind, and mute child. They do not try to discipline the child, and in its place offer only pity.

Richard Craig encourages Minerva Pena to take the job that is being offered to her as teacher of Helen.

Minerva Pena teaches Gaby Mendoza a lesson.

"The Miracle Worker" is the story of Helen Keller, who became deaf, blind, and mute as an infant. Through the help of Anne Sullivan, Helen is able to feel things and recognize them. It is Anne who is at last able to reach Helen, not through the pity that members of her family offered, but through discipline, love, and understanding.

Thespians at Rehearsal

Mr. Davis, Lorraine Hicks, and Jane Sawyer apply make-up on Richard Craig, Fred Orozco, and Hector Gutierrez on their opening night.

Aunt Eve encourages Captain Keller to write to Mr. Anagnos in Boston for help.

From the beginning Captain Keller and Kate worried as the doctor examined little Helen Keller.

Annie teaches Helen to spell, and the ray of understanding finally shines on Helen's face.

Thespians Produce "The Miracle Worker"

Annie proves to Helen that she has done wrong by throwing water at her.

Helen takes a "look" at her new teacher.

Annie desperately explains "Helen is testing you."

Officers of FHA are Mary Moss, president; Christina Rodriguez, first vice-president; Sylvia Flores, secretary; and Irma Corrales, treasurer. Second Row are Mary Frances Dils, parliamentarian; Adela Garza, second vice-president; Laura Lewis, third vice-president; Gustavo Martinez, fourth vice-president; Lauren Moss, fifth vice-president; and Sylvia Garza, sgt.-at-arms.

Seated comfortably near the Christmas tree are the home economics teachers, Mrs. Brady and Mrs. Haggy.

Miss Young enjoys the coffee and cookies served on Open House. Rosa Lazcano serves.

ACTIVITIES

Principal R. P. St. John awarded prizes to Tom McKinney, second place, Rodolfo Hernandez, first place, and Chula Pugh, third place, winners of the FTA Theme Contest.

Mrs. Sara Teague, math teacher, has only smiles for Miss Velia Uribe, Candy Uribe's aunt. Candy, it seems, is an excellent student.

For entries in the FTA Theme Contest, Mike Valls, Mary Claude Reyna, Rosalie Goodman, and Robert Snyder won "Honorable Mention."

MHS Open House

Parents and teachers had an opportunity to visit and exchange ideas during "Open House." Miss Dora Saenz showed Mrs. J. L. Rapp, Mrs. F. J. Cadena, and Mrs. Ben Wright, Jr. the Spanish department's techniques for teaching languages. Needless to say, Kathy Rapp, Johnnye Bogard, and Janis Wright were "perfect angels."

Mr. and Mrs. George MacDonald, parents of Douglas, and Mrs. John Gutierrez, our counselor's wife and mother of John Gutiérrez, Jr., standing next to her, discuss ROTC activities with Capt. Flores.

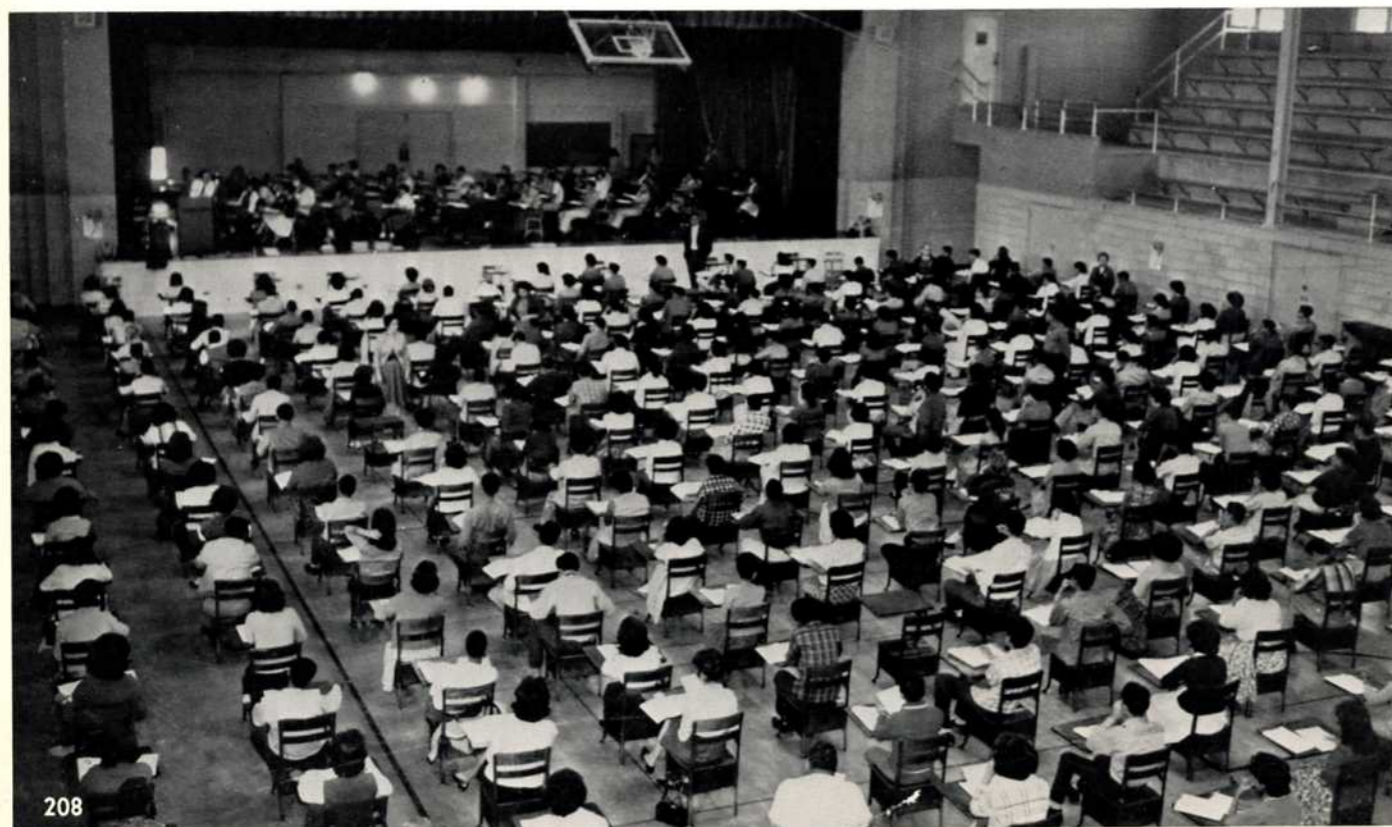

Mrs. Ellen de Tournillon, chemistry teacher, smiled cheerfully as she waited for visiting parents.

Fall is a busy time for all students, but the sophomore trials are pictured as sophomores were divided into two groups and given the Differential Aptitude Test administered by John S. Gutierrez, sophomore counselor. Miss Cabrera, Miss Torres, and Miss Garcia proctored. Approximately 800 sophomores took the aptitude test.

Sophomore Tests Administered

Martin High School cheerleaders riding with Santa Claus throw candy to children along the way.

ROTC cadets in perfect steps, as usual, in downtown parade.

ROTC Sponsors Patti Bruni, Lydia Perez, Cynthia Cantu, and Pat Mims participated too.

MHS Students in Santa Claus Parade

Hard workers for FHA Sue Spruiell, Carolyn Raper, Mary Claude Reyna, and Lee Johnson supervised the "Toss-A-Ring" booth.

Admission to the Jamboree was fifteen cents. The Student Council's able members handled the gate. Edward Walker posed, while Pat Mims was busy giving change.

Queen of the Jolly Jamboree is Jan Ligarde's new title as Oscar Cisneros, president of the Senior Class crowns her. Other candidates were Diana Sanchez and Cordy Hornberger.

The Art Society sponsored the Dart Game booth with three chances for five cents. Prizes were made by art classes.

Jamboree Offers Gay Time

Everyone was rushing to get his fortune told. Will she meet a tall, dark, and handsome boy? This booth sponsored by the Journal was a big success. Gloria Pena collected admission fees.

Popcorn-eaters really kept Joe Martinez, Nelda Garza, and Graciela Gomez busily working for the Distributive Education booth.

ROTC boys really liked pies made out of flour and water. "Delicious!" claim Larry Norton, Philip McKeon, and Tom Conkey as more pies appear.

Minerva Gonzalez, Sylvia Ortega, Norma Brewster, Graciela Ortiz, and Alicia Trevino are trying to get Ricardo Silva to pop a balloon. Don't hesitate, Ricardo!

Elva Dominguez, Diana Barboza, and Ruth Camacho are busy selling cotton candy for the PASF.

MHS Participates in I.G.N.C.

One of the speakers at the I. G. N. C. convention was Chula Pugh.

Mr. Nixon, top picture, and Mr. Lic Emilio Villarreal Guerra, bottom, were presented with certificates of outstanding participation in I.G.N.C. by Joe Munoz.

Guests at the I.G.N.C. Banquet were Glenn Garett, Reynaldo Godines, Patti Bruni, Danny Ochoa, and Lic. Emilio Villarreal Guerra.

Lic. Emilio Villarreal gave a very good speech on the purpose of I.G.N.C. Listening closely is Christen's Student Council Sponsor, Miss Eva Garza. The luncheon was held at the Maya Room of Hamilton Hotel.

Enjoying the luncheon thoroughly are Patti Bruni, Joseph Munoz, Jan Ligarde, and Enrique Chamberlain.

Lamar, Christen, and Martin High students attended I.G.N.C. luncheon. First Row: Michael Woods, Duilio Gutierrez, Irma Talamantes, Hector Gutierrez, Daniel Ochoa, Steve Young, Jan Ligarde, and Sylvia Flores. Second Row: Patricia Kelly, Glenn Garrett, Berta Gomez, Rosa Ramirez, Reynaldo Godines, Enrique Chamberlain, Patti Bruni, Joseph Munoz, Norma Clark, Ree Goodman, Lic. Mrs. Crowell keeps an eye on her husband as he shows the audience how it's done.

Among those entering the trailer set up by the army to view exhibits were Ward Harris, John Slezak, Lucio Cobarrubias, and Juan Castillo.

Leonardo Teran is leaving the trailer after an interesting visit.

Others waiting eagerly to get inside the trailer were Bobby Villarreal, Juan Mireles, Lucio Varela, Juan Garza, Ramiro Leal, and August Herbeck.

In and Between Classes

The need for a new high school is evident from the condition of the halls between classes.

Some of the busy girls in this typing class are Joyce Anglin, Donna Kreft, Norma Puig, and Elsie Talamantes.

The mechanical art class is making posters for the different activities scheduled at Martin High School.

Music 11C, with Mr. Kirk, enjoys a breather in between songs.

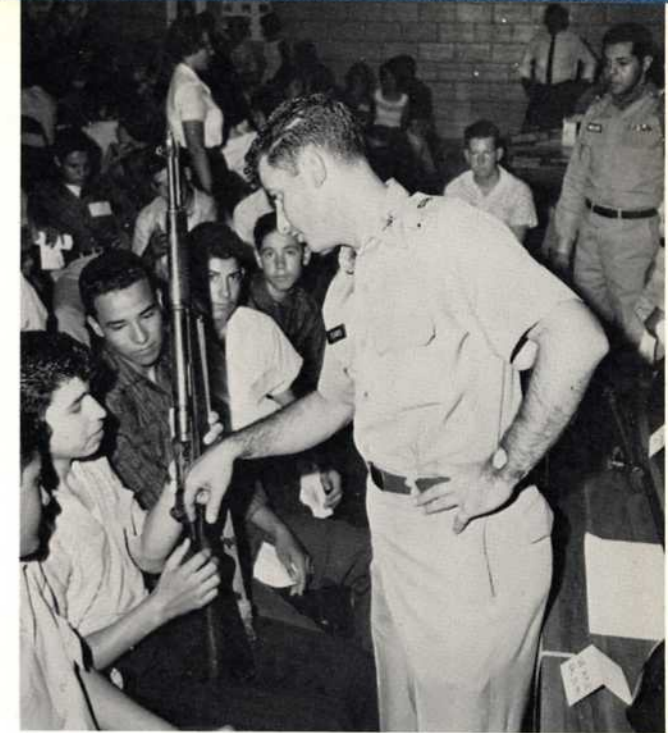

Mrs. Baird's face is all smiles at the mention of the word science. Martin High School is fortunate in having dedicated teachers like Mrs. Baird.

After their "Can Can" performance at the CSC dance, Lydia Perez and Christina Rodriguez laugh it up a bit with Raymond Goodman, LJC student.

During Orientation, Capt. Flores, explains the parts of the rifle to boys interested in R. O. T. C.

Decorating the Christmas tree are CSC girls Mary Ethel Novoa, Genoveva Cantu, Mary Helen Flores, Yolanda Perez, Sara Morehouse, Cathie Whintont, Sandra Guerrero, Sarita Montemayor, Carmen Barrera, Teddy Leal, Guadalupe Garcia, Mary Helen Alfaro, Gloria Jean Farmer, Sandra Guerra, Chula Pugh, Lydia Perez, Rosa Maria Martinez, Arabela Rodriguez, and Pat Mims.

New teachers at Martin High posing for their pictures are Mrs. Villarreal, Mrs. Shaffe, Mr. Lang, Miss Mendoza, Mrs. Soliz, and Mr. Barton.

Representing the CSC at the Youth Appreciation Parade were Yolanda Perez, Mary Helen Alfaro, Sandra Guerra, and Lydia Perez. Tony Bruni is an on-looker.

During Orientation, Cynthia Cantu, Minerva Pena, Jimmy Hines, and Teddy Leal encourage sophomores to join Thespians.

Pep Squad Banquet

Some Pep Squad members seen enjoying their dinner were Mary Moss, Christine Watson, Margaret Green, Harriet Dickey, Cheryl Early, and Bitsy Garza.

Other members seen enjoying themselves were Toni Contreras, Evelyn Goldberg, Cynthia Hastings, Rita Godines, Sara Galindo, Dana Ewing, and Judy Russel.

The very talented Maria Teresa Gonzalez shows off her ability by dancing for the Pep Squad and guests.

Norma Wise, Maria Teresa Zaragoza, and Concepcion Gonzalez among others who enjoyed themselves at the Pep Squad banquet.

Those making up the head table at the Pep Squad banquet were Marilee Hamilton, Sally Sturgis, Patty Powell, Monsignor George Glockner, Billy Jean Nichols, Miss Ruth Young, Mr. R. P. St. John, and Mrs. St. John.

Cathie Whitenon accepted the Athlete of the Year Award for George Semmelman, who was playing out of town. Philip De Bournillon presented the award in behalf of the Coca Cola Bottling Company.

Armando Sanchez gave the Woodmen of the World History Award to Joseph Munoz.

Mrs. Seymon Deutsch the former Linda Brand and granddaughter of Leon Daiches, presented Wenceslao Rodriguez the Daiches Band Award.

Awards Assembly

Mrs. Maximo Cruz gave Irma Rodriguez the Mail Carrier's Auxiliary Award.

Mrs. Bill Dohnke made the presentation of the American Legion Post No. 669 Auxiliary Award to Patti Bruni.

Assisting the tourists traveling through the Gateway City, PASF Tourist Information Booth has proven to be quite beneficial. Among the students helping out in this project are Henry Cavazos, Sandra Guerrero, Horacio Rodriguez, Sylvia Vela, Alice Trevino, Yolando Saenz, Guadalupe Garcia, and Carmina Danini.

Gloria Rubio, Guadalupe Lopez, and Jesus Lopez received medals from the PASF for making the highest scores on the Spanish National Tests, sponsored at Martin High School by the PASF. Gloria and Guadalupe received honorable mention in Hispania, a national magazine and received awards from the Embassy of Costa Rica.

PASF Projects

PASF international projects are numerous, like this Christmas party held at a Nuevo Laredo orphanage. Helpers were Cynthia Cantu, Miss Saenz, Lupita Garcia, Luis Murillo, and Henry Cavazos. Clothing and food were furnished for these children, along with a "rosca de reyes."

The spreading and advertisement of Pan-Americanism on television, radio, and through editorials, was this year's outstanding project of PASF. Participants in the panel discussion on United Nation's Day, October 24, 1962, are Henry Cavazos, Robert Snyder, Aimee Verduzco, and Leyla Aparicio, an exchange student from Panama.

Editing the Pan-American Times, which has a circulation of more than 6,000 throughout the State, are Gabby Guerra, Cynthia Cantu, Miss Saenz, Henry Cavazos, Doris Karabanoff, and Robert Snyder.

The PASF Spanish play "Uno de ellos debe casarse" was presented this year. Presentation of a Spanish play is an annual activity looked to with great anticipation.

PASF members supported the March of Dimes by taking an active part in the Teens Against Polio Parade. Smiling members are Guadalupe Garcia, Minerva Pena, Lorraine Hicks, Sandra Guerrero, William Leyendecker, Henry Cavazos, and Jimmy Mayo.

A garden party, honoring PASF senior members, was an opportunity for Enrique Chamberlain, Joseph Munoz, Aimee Verduzco, and Hector Hall to relax and enjoy themselves.

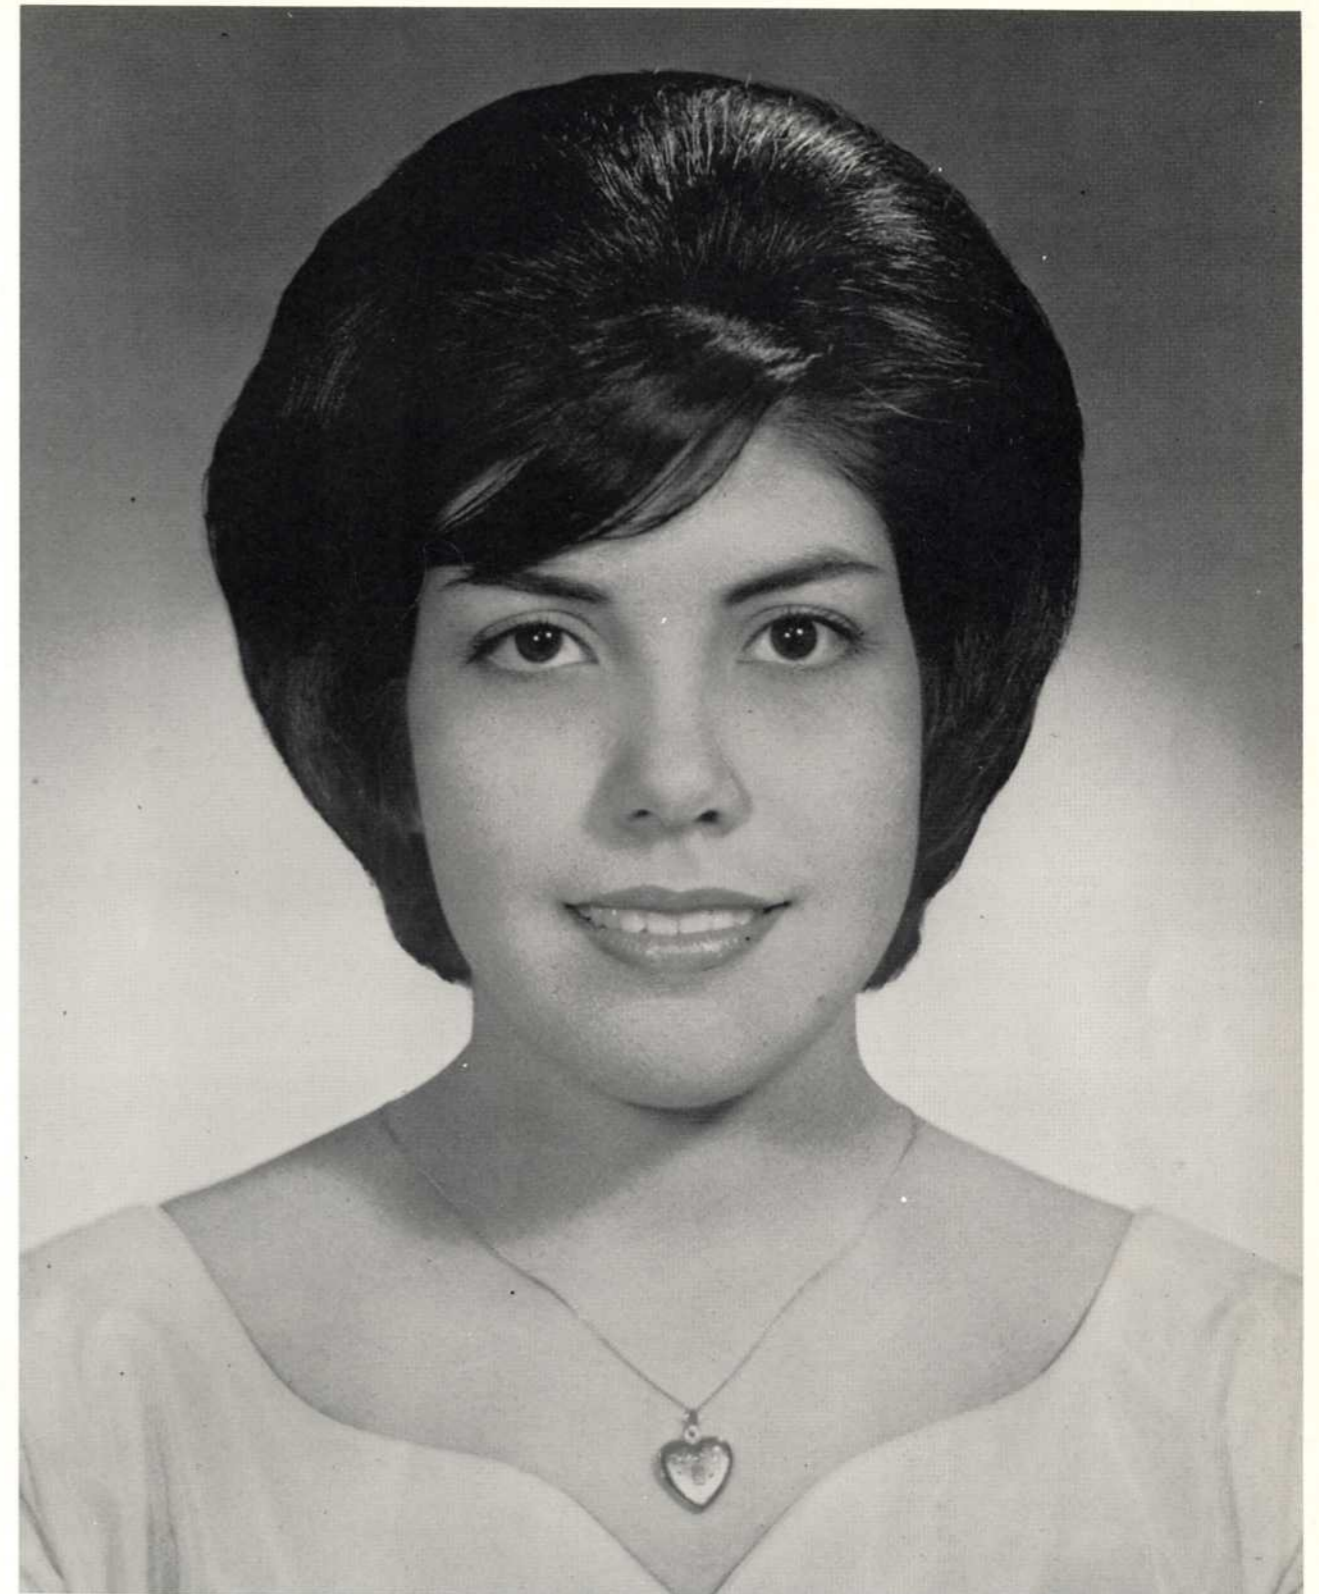

A Christmas party at the local orphanage was another project of the PASF. Bringing laughter and love into the lives of many young people are Lorraine Hicks, mistress of ceremonies, Henry Cavazos, Alfredo Garcia, and Lupita Garcia.

The PASF Sweetheart for 1963 Lupita Garcia was crowned by Robert Snyder, PASF state president, in the presence of the court of Enchanted Sea.

PASF Activities

For Pan-American Day, April 14, 1962, the entire student body was hosted to an assembly in which guest speakers were Mexican Consul Pesqueira, American Consul Ben Zweig, Mrs. Eva Hansen, Pan-American Round Table, and County Judge Roberto Benavides.

MHS B Team

This season the Tiger B Team consisted of Noe Esparza, Cristelo Garza, Rolando Villarreal, and George Haynes. Standing: Robbin Ferguson, Fernando Pena, Coach Andy Santos, Roberto Gonzalez, and Heriberto Hernandez.

Salinas and Harrod leap high in the air in an effort to control the tip-off at the start of the McCallum-Tiger game.

Coach Valls confers with the only two returning lettermen Bobby Leonard and Ray Olivares.

Bobby Leonard practices how to make a swift get away.

Track

Even the camera has a hard time in trying to stop Ray Olivares in the broad jump.

Rodolfo Rios, Manuel Hernandez, and Tom McKinney practice after school for the track events.

Bradford Galo prepares for competition in the 100 and 220 yard dash.

George Garcia, Guadalupe Camarillo, and Ramiro Gomez commence their daily practice.

Bobby Leonard, Tom McKinney, and Ray Olivarez on a practice run for the Border Olympics.

Future tracksters of Martin High School are Armando Rodriguez, Oscar Garza, Victor Guerra, Wayne McNew, and George Haynes.

On a sunny February day Oscar Garza, Kenneth Coolidge, and Jorge Vasquez practice for forthcoming track events.

As can be witnessed by the picture below, a huge number of rookies turn out for baseball.

Baseball

Outfielders are Ricardo Ibarra, Justo Perez, Guadalupe Camarillo, Manuel Perez, and Antonio Rubio.

Infielders are Roberto Gonzales, Saturnino Ramos, Antonio Rubio, Javier Gonzalez, David Saucedo, Eddie Dancause, Robbie Snyder, and Gabriel Palacios.

The Tiger baseball team stands a good winning chance with pitchers like Antonio Rubio in the game.

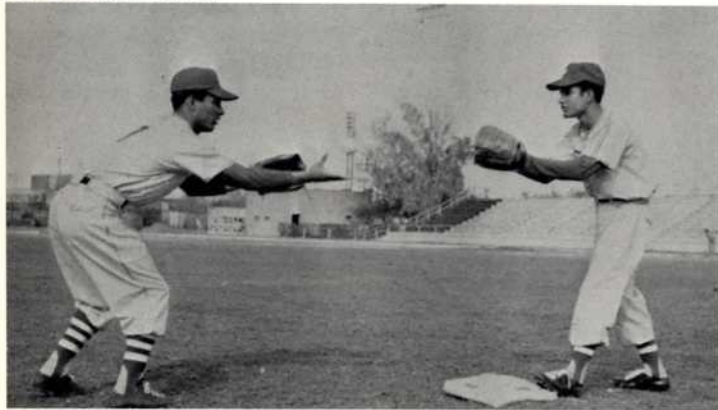

At the bat during rehearsals is Ricardo Ibarra, as Victor Woods catches.

The facial expressions of a pitcher are certainly demonstrated by Robert Snyder.

Conrado Hein pivots the base while Victor Woods slides.

Making a good combination for a double play are Eddie Dancause and Javier Gonzalez.

Justo Perez gallops to first base. First baseman Gabriel Palacios is about to catch the ball.

Third baseman Roberto Gonzalez gets Gabriel Palacios out when he attempted to steal third base.

Mrs. Haynes listens carefully to the music as she makes up dance steps for her P. E. classes.

Exercising in Miss Young's P. E. Junior class are Margaret McBride, Diana Fasci, and Vicki Davis.

Playing tennis early in the morning are Gloria Jean Farmer and Mimi Torchin.

Other tennis players are Francisca Cisneros and Juanita Benavides, as they eagerly wait for the ball.

P.E. Offers Varied Curriculum

Doing their exercises to "Chicken Fat" are Miss Young's Junior P. E. class. Some of them are Margaret McBride, Dolly Bonugli, Diana Fasci, Sue Spruiell, Ma. del Carmen Bustamante and Guadalupe Flores. Miss Ruth Young is head of the Girls' Physical Education Department.

P.E. Classes Keep Students Physically Fit

Doing their exercises in order to be physically fit are members of Miss Young's Junior P. E. Class.

María Teresa Pérez seems to be having fun playing basketball during her P. E. class.

Sarita Montemayor and Linda Tarwin, members of Mrs. Haynes' ballroom dancing class, are practicing their dance steps.

Starting to play basketball are Sue Spruiell, Elena Lopez, and Elodia Flores, members of Miss Young's Junior P. E. Class.

Jo Ann Prince, a member of the Tennis Club, practices serving.

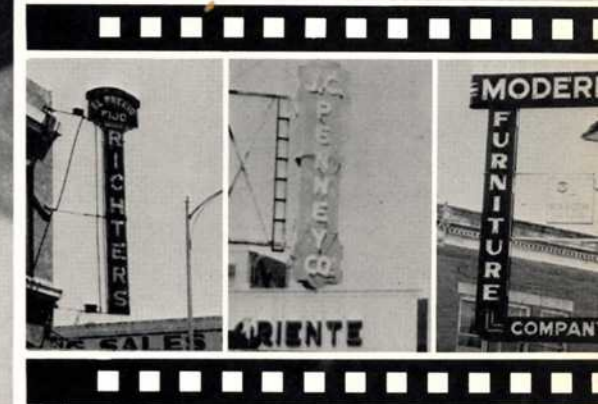

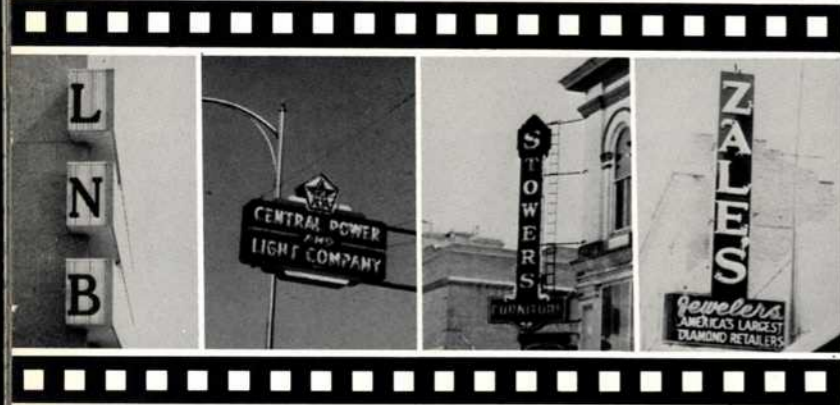

María Teresa Pérez and Martina Castillo try for a goal in basketball.

Mrs. Pendleton, a new physical education teacher, at MHS as of January, is a graduate of Texas Woman's University who holds both a B. A. and an M. A. degree.
