In Memoriam

ETTA MAE MASCHKE, SCHOOL TEACHER

Revealing even on her deathbed a true nobility of spirit, Etta Mae Maschke, who grew up here in Laredo as Etta Mae Niendorff, requested that her eyes be given to the eye bank for transplant to a sightless person. Imagine having one's last thought calculated at providing the marvelous gift of sight for one who has known only darkness!

She had been teaching English at Martin High School for the past two years. She attended the University of Texas, Texas College of Arts and Industries, and Denver University. Etta Mae was a member of the First Presbyterian Church, and she was active with the Pan American Round Table, Luncheon Club, and the Laredo Art Association. She was the niece of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Russell of Laredo and lived at the Russell home.

Etta Mae's total personality was a most glowing one. She was always aware of others, beautifully mannered, poised, a fond friend, intensely interested in her pupils, to whom she gave more than the contents of a text book. She brought to the classroom her culture, her background in literature, music, and art and her knowledge of the world's geography, for she had been to Europe twice before the last odyssey that ended so tragically in a Dallas hospital.

A number of her former pupils asked if they might not write a tribute to her, and one student completed a little poem. Etta Mae's influence on the young minds with whom she came in contact will indeed stretch far down the pathway of the future.

Mrs. Etta Mae Maschke

IN MEMORY OF MRS. MASCHKE
By Her Student Librada Medina

This is a sad and tragic tale
Which I will tell in tears
For it reveals the saddest thing
That has occurred in years.

To all of us well known she was
A friend for most of us
The years she spent at Martin High
Were great for her and us.

Our teacher had a brilliant mind
And on a trip she went
To see the wonders of the world,
And now our hearts are rent.

For in a plane she started home
To meet her Monday class
And as she neared, an Angel's song
Called, "Come above," alas!

To all the students she once taught,
Great knowledge gave to them,
Her memory will live for long
To shine like some pure gem.

Miss Zoila de la Garza

Miss Zoila de la Garza's decision to stay home this year and enjoy her leisure time is a great loss to Martin High School. Still many years away from retirement age, Miss de la Garza was head of the Spanish Department and very active in the school's extracurricular activities. A friend to all, Miss de la Garza is a person whose winning smile and warmth of spirit is missing in the halls of Martin High School.

Teachers

Miss Refugio Benavides

An active and outstanding teacher at Martin High School was Miss Refugio Benavides who for so many years gave unselfishly of her time in sponsoring the Slide Rule Club and preparing the organization for Interscholastic League competition. Many Saturdays Miss Benavides could be seen boarding a bus and sponsoring students on a trip to district and regional competition.

She is staying home now and taking care of her mother—an act typical of Miss Benavides' unselfishness and her willingness to help others. She leaves a gap that no one can fill at Martin High School.

Bid Farewell

To Raymond and

Tirza Martin

BIOGRAPHY OF RAYMOND AND TIRZA MARTIN

By Elizabeth Sorrell

Martin High School is named for Raymond and Tirza Martin, and we of another century wish to know more about this couple, prominent in Laredo in the latter decades of the last century, who were the forebears of Laredo's Mayor J. C. Martin Jr., Mr. Albert Martin, Mrs. Herlinda Martin de Gutierrez, Miss Luisa Martin, and Mrs. Mamie Martin de Garcia.

Six of their children have passed away: Raymond V. Martin, Marcelino G. Martin, John M. Martin, Joe C. Martin, Mrs. Antonia Martin de Martin, and Mrs. Magdalena Martin de Bruni.

Raymond Martin was a Frenchman born in Aauzas, France, on May 31, 1828, the son of Jean Marie Martin, a merchant. He was reared to mercantile pursuits along with his brothers Paul and Joseph, who also came to America, according to Southwest Texas, published in 1907.

After being in the United States two years, Raymond, in 1854, came to Laredo where he opened a store. He was also a pioneer in sheep raising in Webb County, beginning in 1861, and for many years was the largest raiser in this section. At times over 50,000 sheep, as well as thousands of head of cattle, grazed in his pastures.

One of his family recalls going to the ranch at sheep shearing time and seeing thousands of bags of wool cut and sent to market.

He also began raising cattle and accumulated large tracts of land in Webb and La Salle counties. In 1907 the Raymond Martin estate included 130,000 acres of land.

Mr. Martin sold his store in 1887, erected the Commercial Hotel, became one of the organizers of the Laredo Bank, and of the city water works.

He married Miss Tirza Garcia, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bartolome Garcia, an old and prominent family of the city. She was a direct descendant of Don Tomas Sanchez and through her mother was kin to the prominent Madero family of Mexico.

Tirza was only 17 at the time of her marriage, and Raymond was in his forties. They had a perfect life together. Tirza was always pleased and her husband would say, "Hay que Tirza!" accepting happily whatever his wife wished.

Their ten children were perfectly disciplined and rarely misbehaved. The family was knit together by ties of love which held down through the years. Although Raymond died in 1900, his widow carried on his affairs, rearing the family and dying in 1910.

When the new high school building was begun in 1936, it was named for the parents of Albert Martin, at that time Mayor of the city of Laredo, and of Joe C. Martin Sr., who was then president of the Board of the Laredo Independent School District and the sheriff of Webb County.

It is to the memory of this couple for whom our Alma Mater is named that we proudly dedicate our 1965 issue of LA. PITAHAYA.

Ded ication

WHY LA PITAHAYA?

In 1916 the first volume of La Pitahaya appeared, published by the students of Laredo High School, which boasted a class of sixteen seniors. This first volume was dedicated to Miss Katherine Tarver, then a teacher at Laredo High School. Mr. L. J. Christen was Superintendent of Schools. This first yearbook from the only Laredo high school was published under the title La Pitaya; by 1917, volume 2 had become La Pitahaya: a Yearbook of the Laredo High School.

Why the choice of a cactus for the yearbook title? We can surmise. The University of Texas yearbook was called The Cactus, and the university was well known by both the faculty and many of the seniors who aspired to attend it. It seems rational that the name of a specific kind of cactus—one very common to the Laredo area—would give the yearbook title great originality. Also, the dual meaning of a "pitahaya," which was not only a thing of beauty in its spring blossoms of cerise pink, but also served as food to the cowboys who would eat the fruit while taking their cattle to graze on the great plains of Texas, was favorable.

Between the years 1930 and 1936, La Pitahaya went into oblivion, and in 1937, the year Commencement Exercises were held in the newly completed gym of Raymond and Tirza Martin High School, the dedication of the annual went to its sponsor, Mrs. Elizabeth Sorrell, the only teacher in the history of the yearbook who has received two dedications, the second one being in 1963.

In the foreword of the 1937 yearbook can be found the quotation, "It is the hope of the staff with such an important year to record, La Pitahaya of 1937 cannot fail to become one of the best loved annuals published by the Laredo High School."

This is also our hope in 1965!

Class of '64

While in their caps and gowns, a group of graduates just can't help from smiling. These graduates would certainly win a toothpaste contest with their broad smiles.

Paul Lockey solemnly walks off the platform clutching his diploma.

Chuck Hunt proudly receives his diploma as he is being congratulated by Mervil Moore school board member.

Miss Lupe Cabrera presents a scholarship to deserving student Robert Synder, who received a five year scholarship to Johns Hopkins University.

Petra Medina receives a great big kiss from Mrs. Andrews. Petrita received a scholarship to a business college in Austin.

Sixty-ninth Annual Commencement . . .

With a beaming smile Tony Carranco accepts a Laredo Junior College Scholarship for a year from President Laird.

Guests and teachers wait anxiously for the commencement exercises to begin.

The guest speaker at the 1964 graduation exercise was Mrs. Elizabeth Little from Corpus Christi, Texas. Mrs. Little is the President of the Texas State Teachers' Association.

Sarita Morehouse, valedictorian, graciously accepts the Julia L. Richter Memorial Award presented by Mr. J. J. Richter.

Dr. Ray Laird, President of Laredo Junior College, presents Cecilia Lewis, one of our yearbook editors, with a scholarship.

... And School Year '64 Ends

An outstanding student of the class of '64, Evangelina Saenz, receives the American Legion Post #59 Scholarship of $250 presented by Mr. Perfecto Soliz.

Gabriella Guerra was presented with the D. P. Barrow Memorial Scholarship, worth $100, by Mrs. Francis Richter.

On behalf of our school Mr. F. L. Pena, principal, welcomed everyone to the 1964 commencement exercises held at Shirley Field.

David R. Durda was one of the happiest persons when he received the Texas A and M Mother's Club Scholarship worth $250 presented by Mrs. Jose E. Martinez.

MHS Seniors Plan for Future at College Day

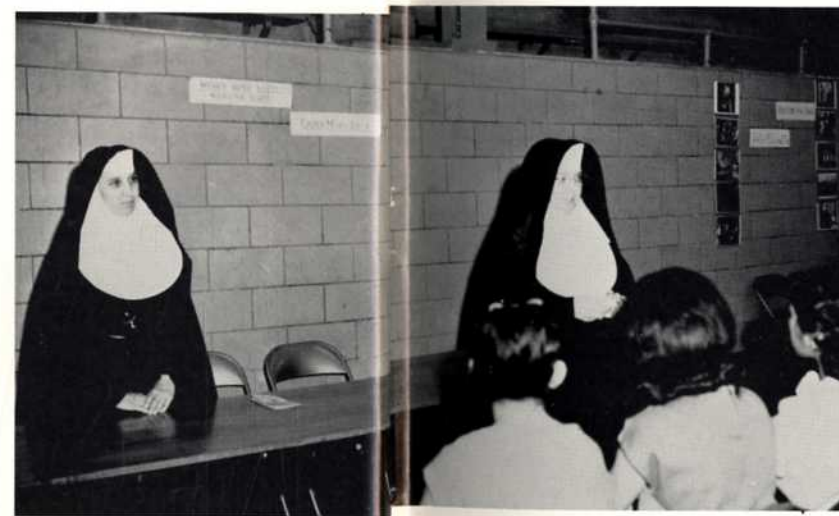

Mr. Pena addresses the senior student body during College Day at Martin High School. He urges the seniors to take the opportunity in becoming acquainted with the college or work of their choice for the future.

One of the guest speakers during College Day was the very popular President of Laredo Junior College, Dr. Ray Laird.

United States Naval Reserve officers talk to senior boys on the qualifications required by the Navy Reserve.

Sister Mary Adele of Mercy Hospital's Vocational Nursing School spoke before a group of girls interested in nursing.

Senior boys interested in the Air Force listen attentively to the Air Force recruiter.

Chris Kazen is pleased as Mr. Johnson hands her a plaque during Awards Day—it's the "Athlete of the Year" award, which Chris receives for Roberto Rios.

Virginia Murillo smiles happily and thanks Mr. Lang as she is handed the "History Award."

Gabby Guerra is all smiles as she is handed an award by Mrs. J. J. Cowl.

Outstanding Martinites Honored on "Awards Day"

Chosen the "Citizens of the Year" were Evelyn Goldberg and Paul Locky, and Mr. Pena awards them a silver cup for their outstanding work.

Because he was such an active band member, Carlos Neira received the Band Parent's Association award.

Mrs. Deats, President of the Women's Auxiliary, presents Ana Maria Gonzalez and Candy Uribe their Girls State Awards.

Pausing for a refreshing soft drink were Martin High School students who visited Laredo Junior College during Vocations Day.

Laredo Junior College's Vocations Day

Candy Uribe is shown here receiving a gift from Mrs. Gutierrez for being a hard-working Business Manager on the Pitahaya staff during the year 63-64.

Enjoying last year's Annual banquet were Gilberto Cardenas, Roberto Rios, Mary Cantu, Diana Zuniga, Arthur Cavazos, Bertha Gomez, Irma Talamantes, Henry Cavazos, and Sharon Ulan.

After the Work Was All Done Last Spring

Among the honored guests present were June Byfield, Cecilia Lewis, Tom Conkey, Mrs. and Mr. Watkins, Mrs. Obdulia Hernandez and Kathy Rapp.

A group of Martin High students pose while touring the classrooms and observing the facilities offered at Laredo Junior College.

Lupita Gutierrez, Jo Emma Salinas, Licha Garcia, Estella Leyendecker, Rosario Criado, and Cordelia Casso were among the Ursuline students discussing the opportunities awaiting them at LJC.

Monsignor George Gloecknor, one of the honored guests, gave the benediction and posed with our yearbook for our photographer.

Mr. Hein released the tension of sophomore students by saying a couple of jokes.

Sophomore Orientation Is Introduction to MHS

Becky Flores, president of Future Teachers, encouraged all to join FTA and prepare for a teaching career.

Margarita Guerra, Velma Moran, Miss Elsa Montemayor, and Juanita Carrillo speak to a group of girls on what Future Nurses can do. One of Future Nurses' inspiring lines is "Nursing is one career which helps relieve human misery."

During Orientation Captain Flores urged all sophomores to join clubs and to make their three years at MHS successful ones.

One of the active organizations displaying their many activities is PASE. Lupita Ramirez, Alicia Ramirez, Lydia Benavides, Rosalinda Olivera, Hilda Ramos, and Lorraine Hicks speak to a group of students.

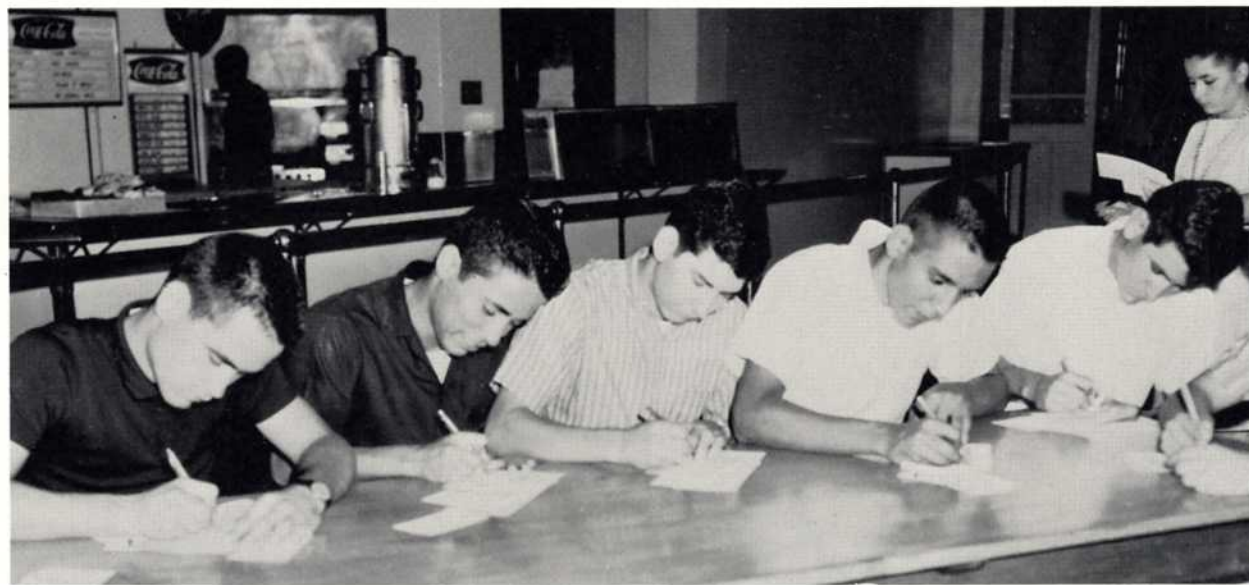

Registration at MHS for 1964-65

Waiting in line for registration to begin are Olga Rodriquez, Librada Medina, Gloria Medina, and Felipe Sanchez.

Working very hard for Student Council in the bookroom are Elda Gutierrez, Peter Palizo, Elsa Gutierrez and Gilberto Cardenas.

Very diligently getting their cards filled out at registration are Juan Tenorio, Ricardo Sandoval, Felix Gonzales, and Jose Luis Longoria.

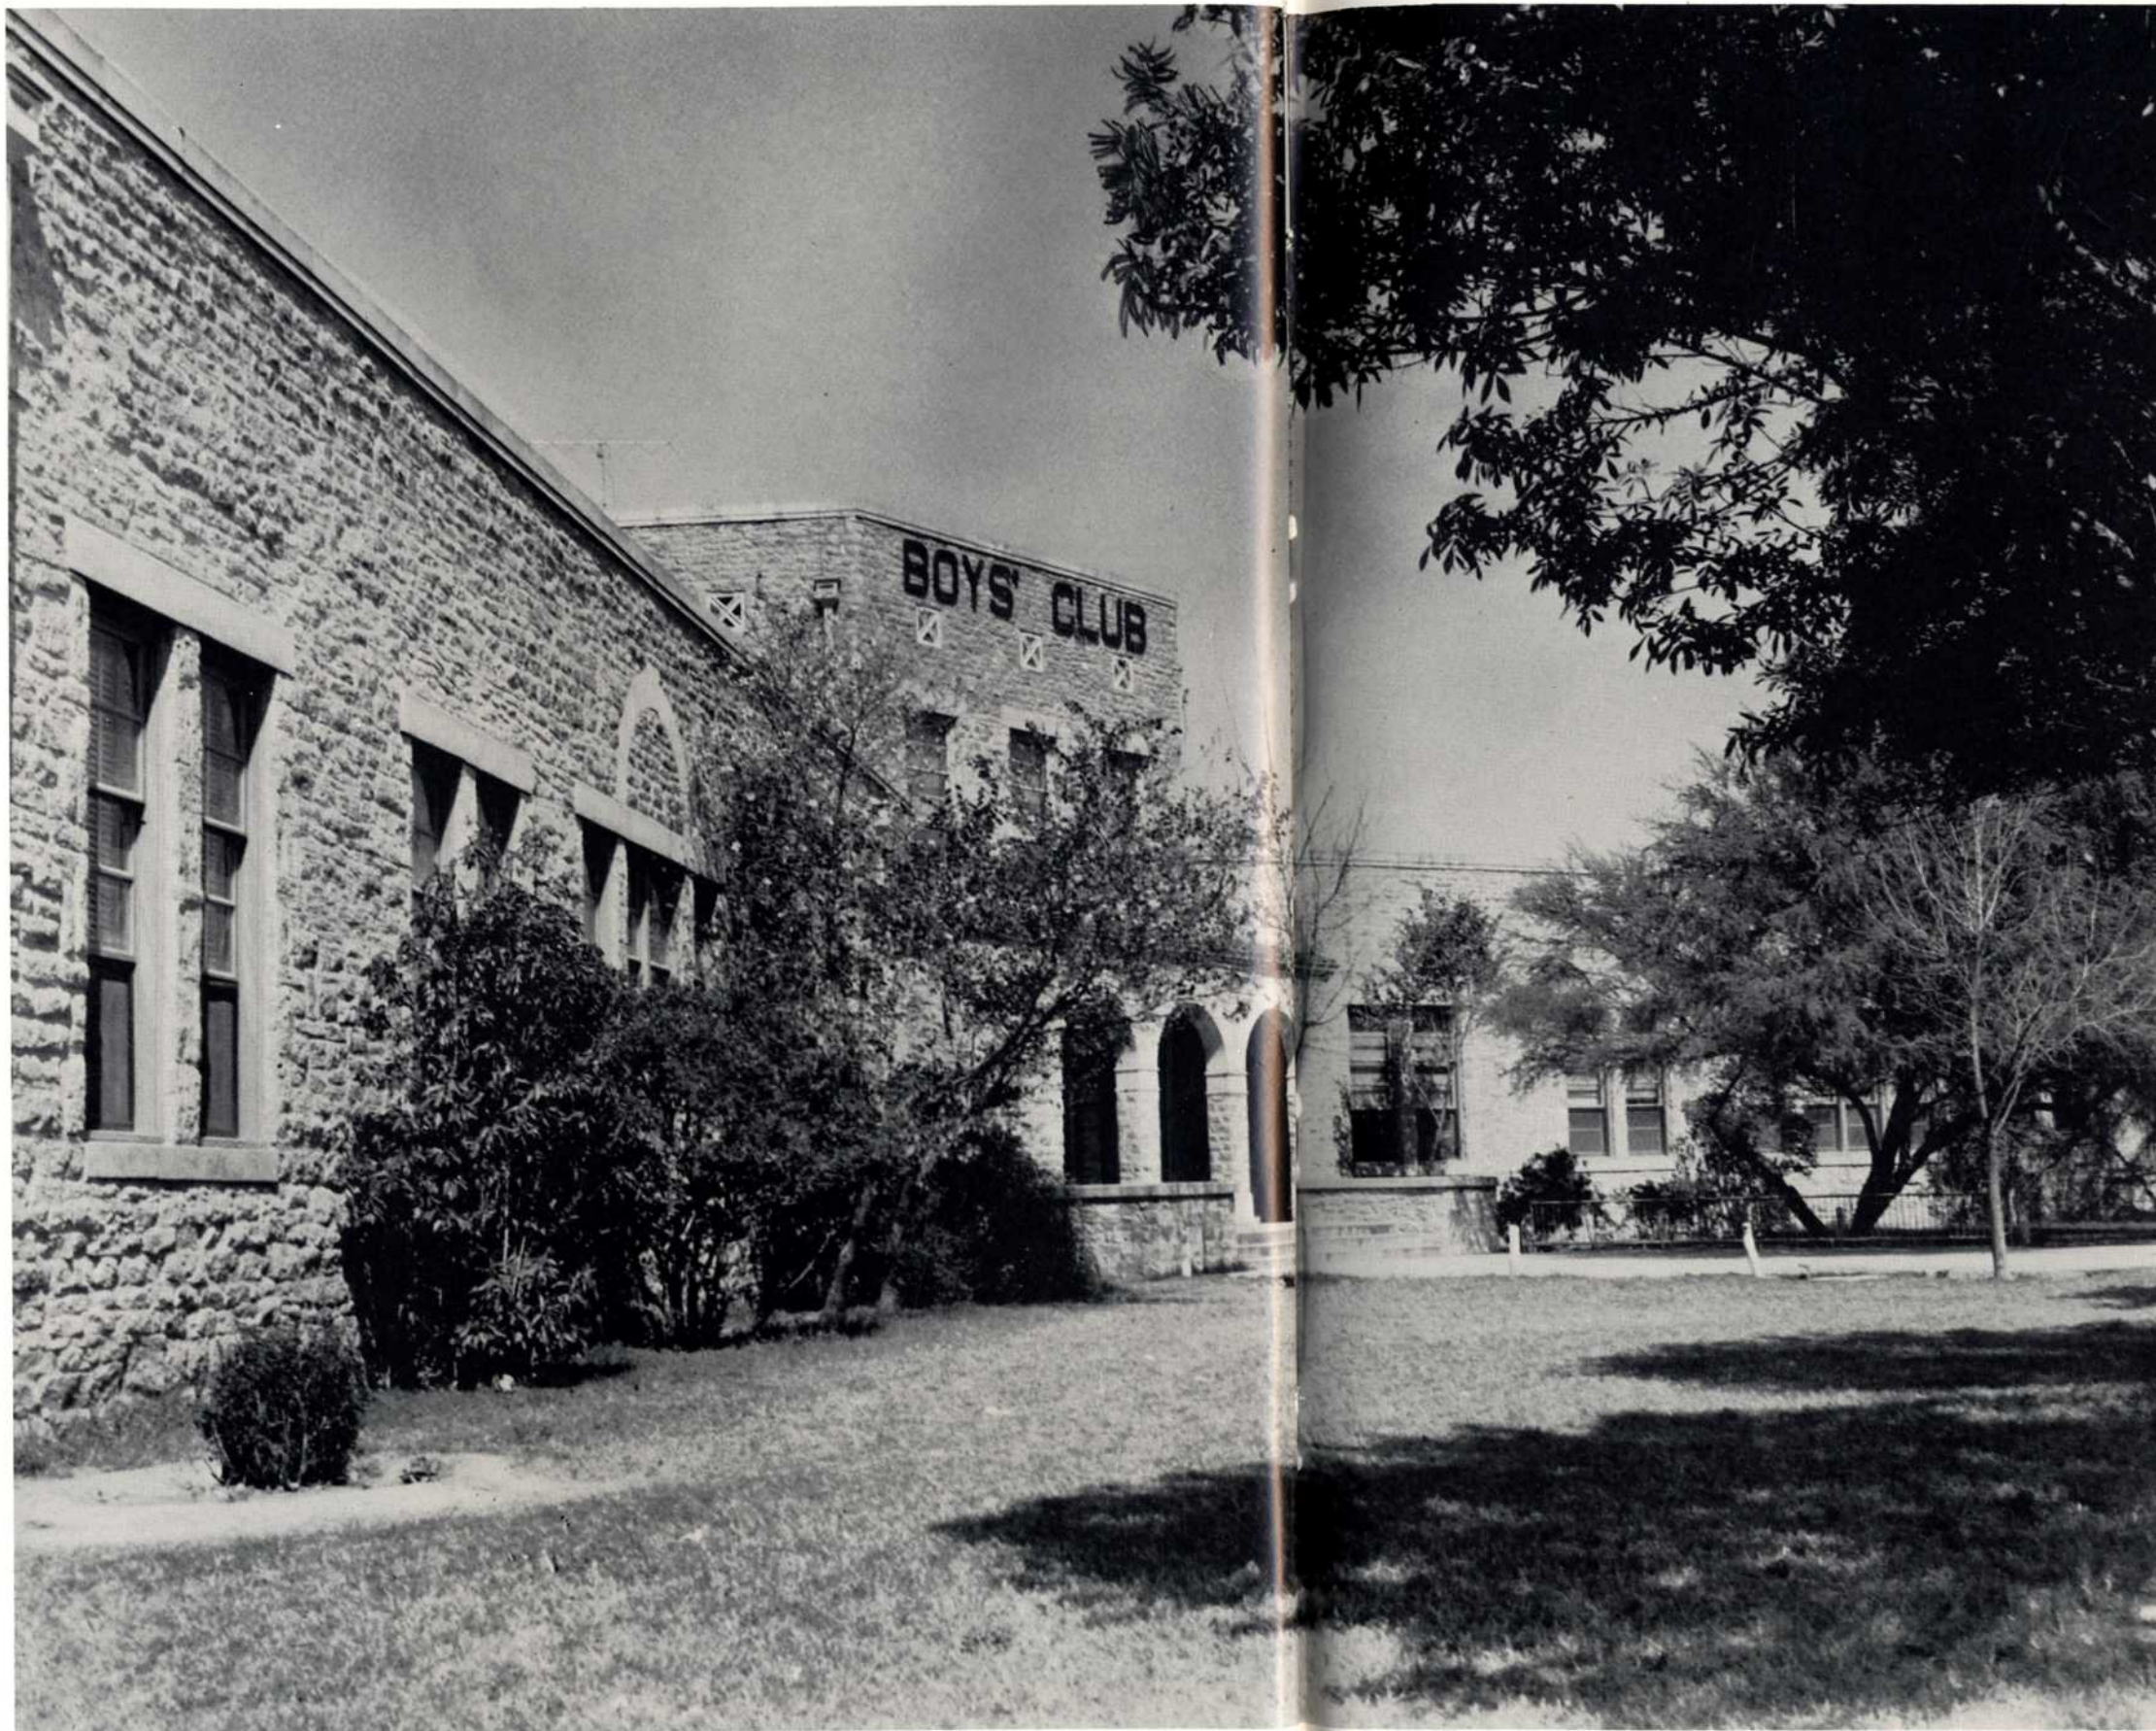

Proud seniors getting their new books are Martha Santos, Rosemary Jordan, Edna Pina, Juanita Leven, Margarita Y. Perez, and Emma Berry.

Armando Rodriguez and Alfredo Martinez anxiously waiting for their schedule.

Standing in line ready to get their books are Alex Santos, Peter Palzio, and Elma Hinojosa

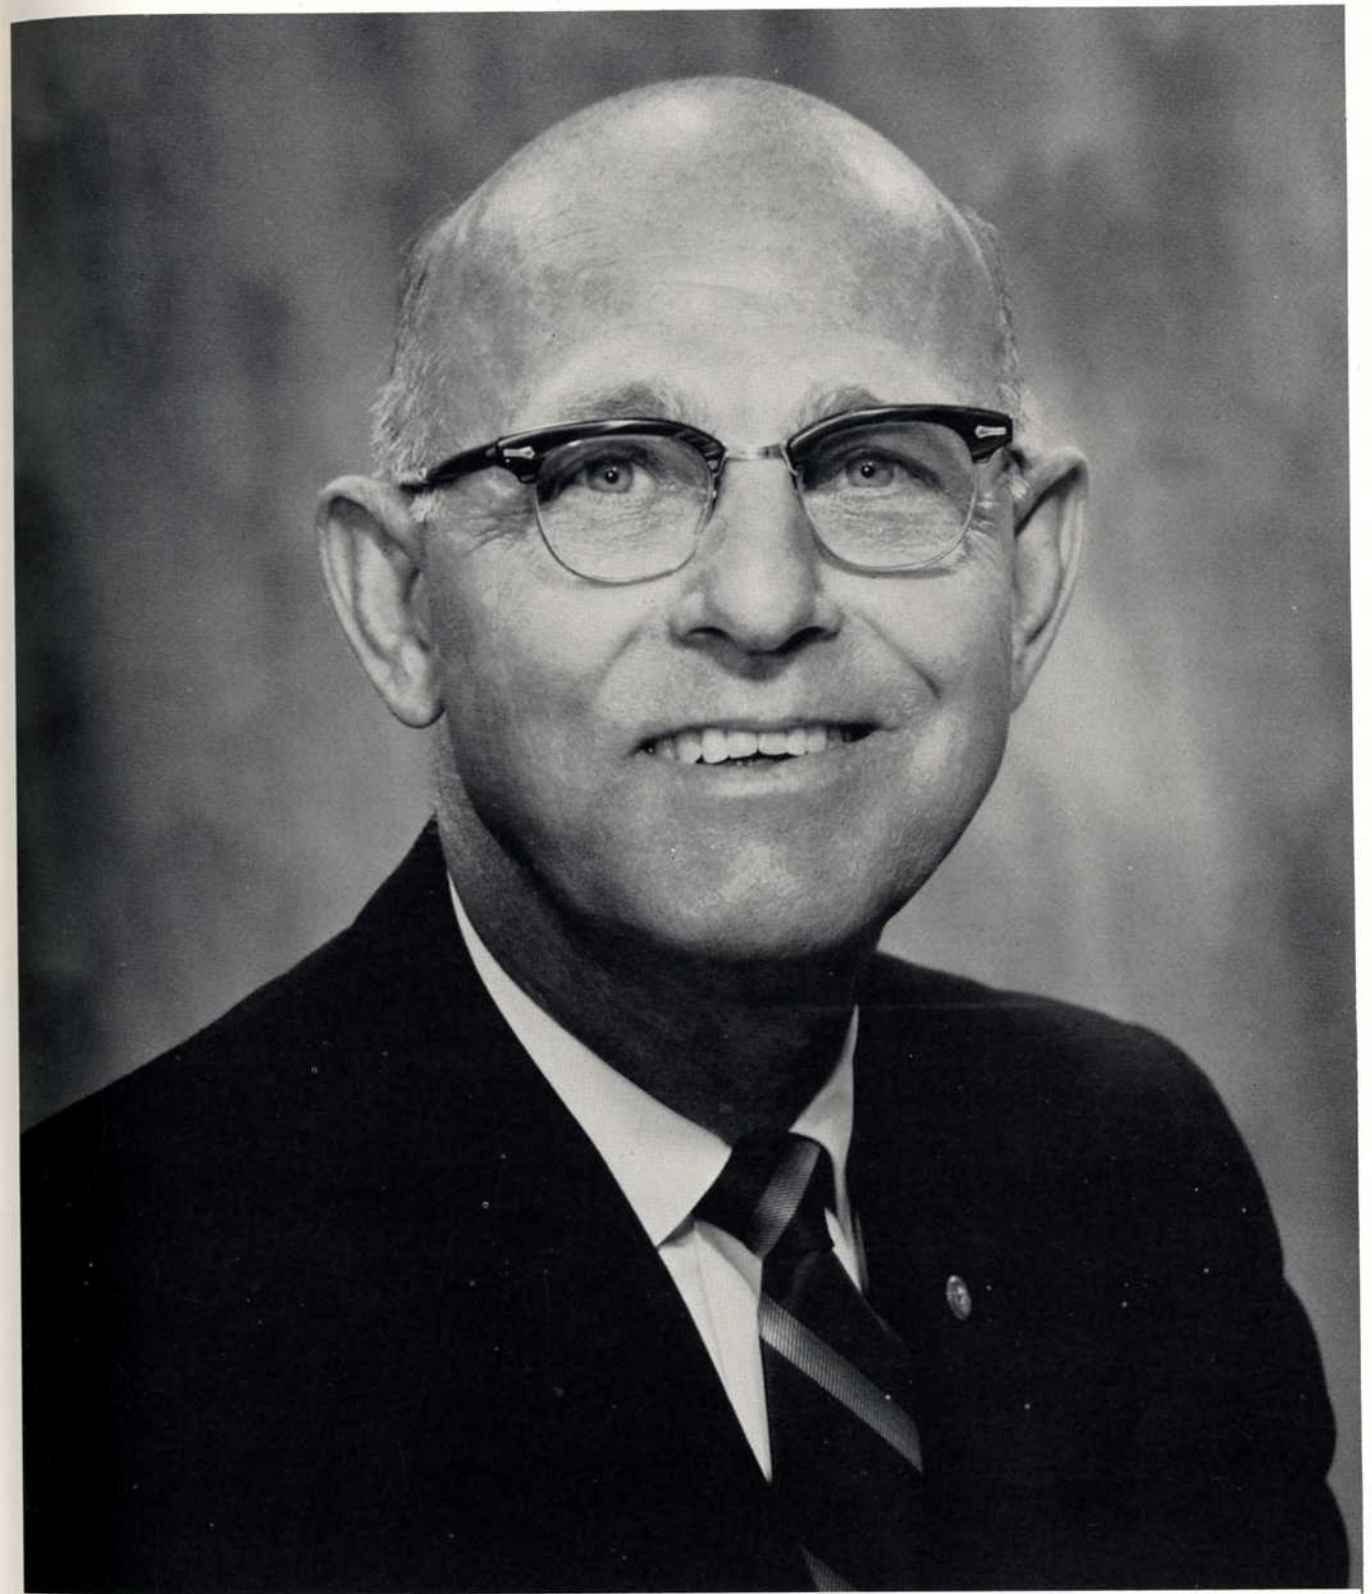

THE BOYS' CLUB OF LAREDO

The Boys' Club of Laredo is an individual non-profit organization managed by a volunteer board of directors dedicated to promote the social, educational, vocational, physical, and character development of boys throughout Laredo. For eighteen years the Boys' Club of Laredo has fostered juvenile decency, particularly among youngsters from our less-privileged areas. To develop such basic virtues as honesty, hard work, fair play and a willingness to recognize the rights of others and to instill enthusiasm for our nation's heritage and love of country are some of the challenges the Boys' Club of Laredo faces and tries to meet through its program, which is under the guidance of Fernando L. Pena, Director of the Boys' Club and respected principal of Martin High School.

INTERNATIONAL BRIDGE

The International Bridge at Laredo joins Mexico and the United States, but even of greater significance it joins two peoples and two cultures. Through the years, Laredoans have come in contact with an older Hispanic and Latin American culture and have taken the best of this and the best of our own American heritage and formed a unique culture in which Laredoans take great pride.

Taking a break between periods to pose at the camera are two physical education teachers, Mrs. Soliz and Mrs. Pendleton.

Our Students and Teachers

Working hard after school for La Pitabaya is our business manager Edna Pina.

Sylvia Gonzalez is the 1964-65 Sweetheart of the VIC Metals club.

Work and Relax

Distributing the gowns for the choir members to perform in an assembly are officers Hilda Ramos and Corina Reyna, while Clifford Trimmer and Ricardo Sandoval receive them.

Virginia Murrillo was presented as one of the editors of La Pitabaya.

Jerry Valdez, Adrianna Hachar, Billy Weatherford, and Virginia Murrillo were among the club officers presented at the Prom.

Sylvia Azios was presented as Most Beautiful for the senior class of 1964.

Senior Prom Held
April 15, 1964

Junior class officers pose by the new Laredo Civic Center, a symbol of growth in the community. Officers are Roddy Applewhite, treasurer; Sara Alicia Pena, parliamentarian; Quintin Vargas III, president; Blanca Zaragoza, secretary; and Reynaldo Godines, vice-president.

Work on organizing the Courtesy Service Club began in the spring of 1934 under the direction of Miss Midge Gerling. The idea of a Courtesy Service Club was first presented by Mr. C. E. Wade, principal of Laredo High School and later Superintendent of the Kingsville schools. The purpose of the organization was to have a service and a drill group combined, but by fall the drill part was judged too much if the girls were to give their best service. Mrs. Kate Andrews assisted in the spring and summer, but in the fall of 1934 Miss Gerling was unable to resume teaching, and Miss Virginia Champitte, a physical education teacher, took over the sponsorship for that year. Miss Gerling resumed sponsorship in 1935, and when she left Laredo in 1937, Miss Adele Wildenthal became sponsor until 1943. Mrs. Kate Andrews was then appointed sponsor until 1951 when Mrs. Blanche Wright was asked to sponsor the organization. In 1957 Miss Elia Montemayor, now a teacher at Nixon High School, became the club sponsor until 1962, when she did graduate study at the University of Texas, during which time Mrs. Wright resumed sponsorship. At present Mrs. Nelda Guardioli is sponsor and Miss Martha Fasci is co-sponsor.

The purpose of Courtesy Service is service to the community and to the school with courtesy. Mr. Wade wanted an organized group of the "cream-of-the-crop" girls in high school on whom he could call when any help was needed in the community or in the school.

The original idea was that a CSC girl should conduct herself at all times, whether on duty or not, in such a way that no teacher could complain. A CSC girl was to represent a teacher in any work that she was called on to do.

CSC members are nominated by faculty and members. No member can vote against a nominee, but two faculty members can delay a girl's membership for a semester if they feel that the girl is not ready for CSC work. In the past decade a "B" average has been required.

The Courtesy Service Club officers are first row: Irma Talamantes, parliamentarian; Arabella Gonzalez, historian; Ana Maria Gonzalez, corresponding secretary; Yolanda Luna, second vice president; and Parsy Hilario, treasurer. Second row: Jean De Laya, secretary; Darlinda Pena, secretary of service hours; Delia Virjan, president; and Cesiah Guajardo, secretary of calendar events. Third row: Graciela Salazar, sergeant-at-arms; Candy Uribe, reporter; and Becky Rubio, first vice president.

First row: Elena Vela, Olga Villarreal, Irma Talamantes, Hilda Ramos, Anna Maria Gonzalez, Rebecca Navarro, Eduardo Morales, Yolanda Luna, Sara Alicia Valdez, Gilberto Cardenas, and Fernando Montemayor. Second row: Delia Trujillo, Cristina Leal, Sylvia Martinez, Arabella Gonzalez, Luz Ma. del Corral, Maticela Olivares, Ana Alicia Plascencia, Olga Rodriguez, Dora Ramirez, Janie Ruiz, Josie Wise, Maria Teresa Moreno, Juanita Barrero, and Lydia Benavides. Organized in 1954, the Robert E. Lee Chapter of the National Honor Society is entitled to have a membership of fifteen percent of the Senior Class enrollment. In order to be placed on the scholarship list, a student must have an average of eighty-five or above. Faculty sponsors and sponsors of organizations rate the students on character, leadership, and service, and those having the highest number of points become members. This year's membership consists of 69 members. There are ten junior members and five sophomore provisional members.

To encourage scholarship, the organization gives scholarships and entertains those who made the honor roll at least three times at a picnic. Recipients of the three National Honor Society Scholarships last year were, Gabby Guerra, David Durda, and Sandra Joy Guerrero.

George Zapata receives the best supporting actor award at the Thespian Banquet held in September of this year.

Thespians Are Busy People, but They Do Relax

The Three Women of Corinth from the Greek tragedy Medea, last year's Inter-Scholastic League district and regional winner from Martin High's Speech Department, were Judy Kowis, Queenie Quiros and Evelyn Goldberg.

After a successful performance of Medea the audience came backstage to congratulate the actors. Some of the well-wishers are Luis Novoa, Nancy Gardner, Kirby Weathersbee, Dale Greenberg, Loni Rose, and Meg Guerra.

In the Christmas play were Elma Hinojosa as Mary, Fred Orozco as Joseph, and Edna Pina as an angel.

Linda Akin putting makeup on Evelyn Goldberg.

Elma Hinojosa and Edward Walker practicing for Medea.

Thespian members selling cokes are Fred Orozco, Bobby Villarreal, and Donna Muckelroy.

Announcing the play Medea are Edward Walker and Quinlin Quiroz.

The Martin High School Tigerettes' main purpose is to boost school activities, to increase school loyalty and sportsmanship in both interscholastic and intra-school activities. They attended the Lanier-Martin game in San Antonio this year.

The Tigerettes perform at the half time football ceremonies, attend basketball games, usher at different occasions, and march in all Laredo parades. They also foster many community projects such as the Poppy Sale.

Shirley Stadium situated behind Martin High School was built in 1947 and dedicated to the late Shirley DaCamara, past coach and principal of Martin High School.

The Stadium is used for the Martin High football games, and until another stadium is built, the Nixon games will also be held at the stadium. Among its other functions, band contests are held on its green field, where bands from throughout South Texas participate in this annual event. In February the George Washington Parade ends its run here at the stadium with float competition. Later in the day drill teams from throughout the 4th Army Area which have participated in the parade hold their annual Drill Team Competition. Laredo's own Martin High Singing Cadets always rank high in this colorful event. To wind up the festivities the Laredo Public Schools present the Dance Festival, a most delightful event in which hundreds of Laredo children take part. In March of every year the Border Olympics take place. Students from various colleges and high schools take part in the stiff competition. The Military Review and the annual Commencement Exercises of Martin High also take place at Shirley Stadium.

Athletics

Martin Massacres Mustangs

Laredo's greatest athletic event of the year was perhaps the Martin High game with its cross-town rival Nixon High. The Nixon Mustangs were literally massacred on the Tigers' field. After four quarters of thrills and suspense before a four thousand capacity crowd, the final score was Martin 34 to Nixon's 0. After the game the more-than-happy Tiger team swept Coach Voelkel from the ground and triumphantly carried him off the field.

Rolando Villarreal tackled a Nixon player while some of the tigers are gaining; the game proved to be very exciting.

Some of the senior members of the football team having fun before a practice session are Inocencio Sada, Victor Alcocer, Ruben Salinas, Ramiro Rodriguez, Jesse Alaniz, Joe Alaniz, Hector Caballero, Jesse Garcia, Raul Perez, Rolando Villarreal.

Synonym of honor, gallantry and bravery the tiger has bestowed Martin High for many years with a dignified honor, an admirable gallantry, and a gist of the spirit of bravery that has made students proud of their team.

Activities

The Martin High Thespian Club, whose members are of the highest caliber in the state, works each semester on one play. In the spring semester the club travels to San Antonio for the district and regional contests. The Laredo group has gone to state five times with Antigone, Cradle Song, The Lark, Romancers, and, last year, Medea.

In the Fall Semester of 1964-1965 the Thespians presented "Teahouse of the August Moon" by Patrick Hamilton. The 3-act comedy was a most delightful production. Pictured here in a rehearsal scene from this hilarious play are Lotus Blossom, Alicia Garces; Miss Higa Jiga, Elma Hinojosa; and Sakini, Duilo Gutierrez.

Rodolfo Decker, one of the Physics students, explains his project to three of his friends. He was another of Mrs. Baird's students.

The method for detecting ions in solutions was another project at Science Night, presented by Julian Pena.

This was one of the many projects presented by physics students at Martin High School during Science Night.

Chuck Richter demonstrates to Charles Harralson and David Durda his project of the seven frequencies of white light.

Taking care of the guest book was Mrs. M. M. Lindheim, while Mr. W. E. Lockey and Frank Staggs stopped to chat a while.

At the "come and get it" sound the teachers formed a bee line to the buffet table to select their exquisite meal.

Mr. Macias, bubbling up for the Lawrence Welk mood, displayed one of his many hidden talents.

The annual Martin High Faculty Christmas Banquet, held at the Maya Room, needless to say, resulted in a great success. Laughs and smiles were increasingly predominant throughout the party, as Mr. and Mrs. Alfredo Garza, Miss Maya Guerra, and Aminda Perez, Mrs. Norma Hagy, Mr. and Mrs. Danny Villarreal, Miss Grizelda Duarte, and Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Gutierrez Jr. congregated.

To complement the fun, delicious food was served at the buffet table, which was ornamented with a lovely centerpiece visible as Mrs. J. A. Nixon and Miss Ortiz served themselves.

CSC Mardi

Gras Ball

Others enjoying themselves at the ball are Edmundo Ramirez, Candy Uribe, Delia Virjan, Oscar Garza, Arabella Gonzalez, Gilberto Cardenas, Carmen Elizondo, and Kenneth Cooliege.

Posing for a picture while dancing are Elda Gutierrez and Adolfo Gutierrez.

Two Nixon girls enjoyed the company of two Martin High boys at the dance. They are Fernando Vela, Claudio Garza, Becky Vela, and Hilda Martinez.

Dancing to the lonely, soft music played by the Valdez Brothers was Ruben Botello with his pretty partner.

Estella Ramirez, Manuel Quintanilla, Graciela Jimenez, Diana Salinas, and Juanita Dominguez, are some of the happy faces at the gay festivities.

Exercising before their big performance by doing the split were Magdalena Santos, Sylvia Gonzalez, Maricela Olivares, and Irma Talamantes.

Martin's own Mrs. Sandra Deliganis gracefully acted as the "Calendar Girl" for the 1964 Faculty Follies.

McDonnell School faculty and MHS faculty members Mrs. Angie Garcia, Mrs. Alicia Moreno and Mrs. Fita Flores presented "The Little Rascals."

Mr. Roberto Ibarra accompanied by the faculty swims and monster mashes in the number, which received the 2nd prize for originality (after all, how original can you get).

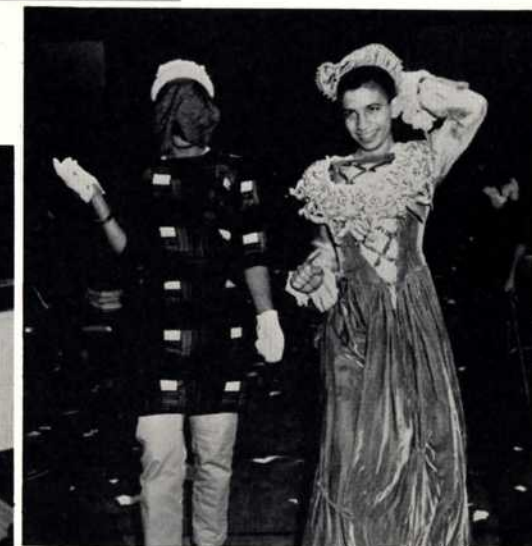

Playing the saxophone are Humberto Gonzalez, Humberto Herrera, Amaury Nora, Tommy Stipulkosky, and Ernesto Guajardo.

Acting as Bridesmaids for The Womanless Wedding were Roberto Rios, Juan Tenorio, Rafael Torres, and Guadalupe Contreras performed by the Number Sense Club.

Martinites Present March of Dimes Assembly

Acting as Bridesmaids for The Womanless Wedding were Roberto Rios, and Donato Martinez.

Performers for The Womanless Wedding were Fernando Medina, Roberto Rios, Donato Martinez, Raul Caballero, Jose Velasquez, Cornelio Trevino, Eddie Morales, and Guadalupe Contreras.

At Christmas, students gathered beside the Christmas tree to sing carols, bringing Christmas spirit to the halls of Martin High School.

Martinites at Work and Play

Elma Hinojosa and Juvencio Elizalde waiting for the basketball game to start.

The Rondels performed for an assembly, and the crowd loved them.

Miss Adela Garcia offering a ride on the old jalopy to Margie Guerra, Juan Felipe Aguilar, and Leopoldo Lozano.

Mrs. Guardiola thanked her typing conference class for the lovely corsage presented to her.

Checking the library files are Mrs. Deliganis and Miss Westbrook.

Giving a speech at last year's Annual banquet and thanking the members for the present was Mrs. Gutierrez.

Salvador Ruiz was disguised as a poor wounded Marine.

Future Masquerade

Dancing to the "Stroll" were Jose Cruz and Magdalena Santos.

Taking a break after refreshments were served at the party were Diana Salinas, Velma Salinas, and Miss Adela Garcia.

Nurses Party

Cowboys, cowgirls, witches, Indians, and cute freckled girls were all present. They were Sylvia Quintanilla, Norma Montoya, Petrita Mota, Salvador Ruiz, Aurora Rodriguez, Elena Vela, Velma Salinas, Rosalia Cruz, Guadalupe Ponce, Diana Salinas, Magdalena Santos, and Ildefonso Ruiz.

Entertainment was provided by the trio, "Peter, Paul and Happy", who are Ernesto Dominquez, Javier Montoya, and Happy Meier.

The tall Texan waving so-long as the members left the party was Diana Salinas. Meanwhile Velma Moran relaxes as the party has come to an end.

Homecoming Events Close Football Season

"Tenchita" Garcia steps gracefully to her crowning, as the Martin High Honor Guard salute her highness.

Hortencia Garcia, Homecoming Queen, and her court, Duchess Candy Uribe and Duchess Norma Villarreal, along with Deborah Hinojosa and Patricia Lynn Brady, flower girls, and crown bearer Richard Hagy cheerfully await the crowning ceremonies.

Lt. Mayers and Juan Tenorio inspect the Drill Team at the competition on February 20, 1965. The Martin High Drill Team scored the highest rating at the inspection.

The Drill Team Competition was won by the Singing Cadets of Laredo, and receiving the first place trophy is Commander Juan Tenorio. An army officer and Miss Lydia Perez presented the coveted prize. Miss Perez, also Miss Laredo 1965, was the ROTC Sweetheart in 1963.

The Singing Cadets

Executing the circle at the competition are the Martin High Singing Cadets.

Mrs. Uribe and Miss Saenz are shown with Renato Zapata during a trip by the Spanish classes to Mr. Zapata's forwarding agency.

Spanish 9 Classes Visit Forwarding Agency

Renato Zapata very gladly showed Spanish Correspondence students around his forwarding agency. Pictured are Estella Ramirez, Juan Jose Mireles, Mr. Zapata, Dora Molina and Rodolfo Vela.

Margarita Perez, San Juanita Luera, Agustina Olvieda, and San Jaunita Palos look on as an employee at the Renato Zapata Forwarding Agency is busy at work.

Miss Elsa Montemayor was busy operating the central control during a Spanish class language session.

Spanish students were attentively listening to their language lesson.

Spanish Students in the Lab

After an in-service meeting, the Spanish teachers enjoying some refreshments were Mr. Vela, Mrs. Munoz, Mrs. Valle, Texas Education Agency Consultant Mr. George M. Blanco, Miss Saenz, Mrs. Pena, and Mrs. Uribe.

Career Day Day Attracts Laredo Public School's Seniors

Mr. Rex Jackson distributes pamphlets about requirements at the University of Texas.

A/First Class Dee 'Serna and A/3rd Class Judy Contreras convey vital information concerning the WAFS to all interested girls.

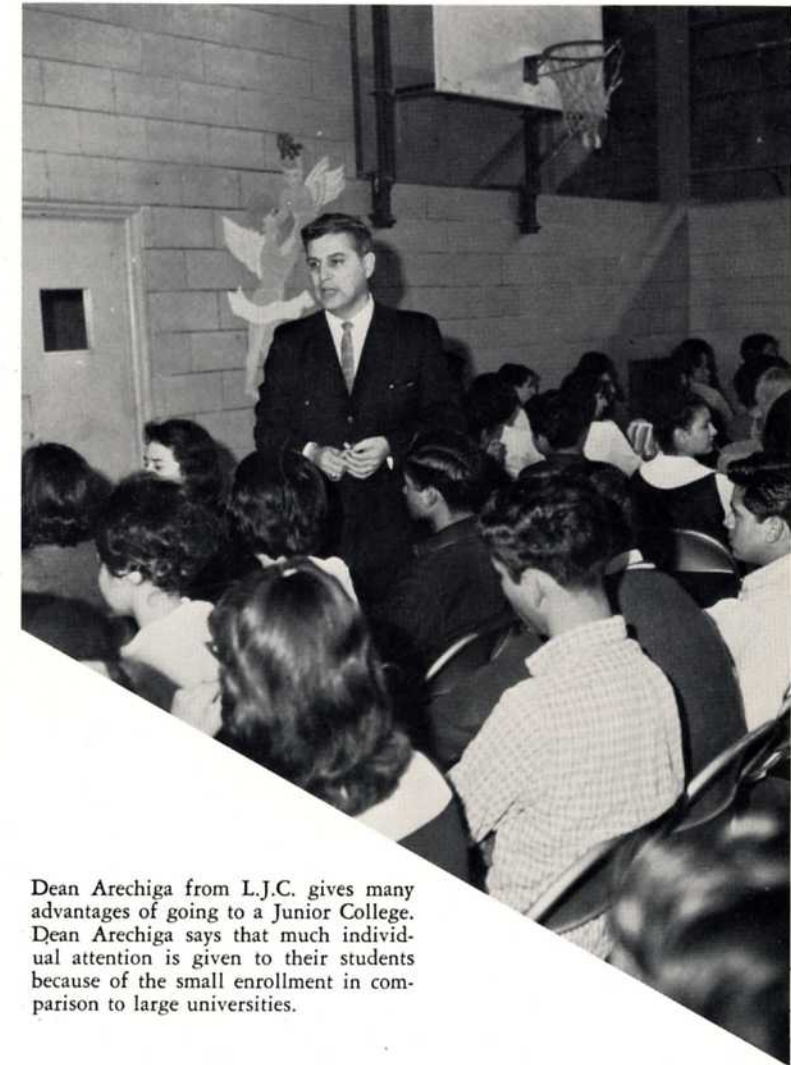

Many senior girls listen to Dean Emerson of Texas Woman's University as he surveys them with speculation.

Texas A&M is well represented by Robert Knight, from the Department of Journalism and Robert B. Gleason the Associate Director of Admissions.

Mr. Al Kuhn representing the Magic Valley Beauty College in San Juan, Texas, explains the advantages of beauty college.

Dean Arechiga from L.J.C. gives many advantages of going to a Junior College. Dean Arechiga says that much individual attention is given to their students because of the small enrollment in comparison to large universities.

Filing cards was quite a job after the student body registered. Assisting at this task were Gracie Araiza, Mrs. Uribe, Mr. Ibarra, and Mrs. Garcia.

Spring Registration

Student Council members who helped out in the book room were Jose Carlos Sanchez, Israel Gutierrez, Hilda Cabrera, and Delia Trujillo.

"Give to the March of Dimes," urges Quintin Vargas, president of the Junior Class, as Sara Pena happily contributes. Also urging juniors to contribute were William Plyler and Carmen De Jesus.

Xavier Domiguez, Ruth Gonzalez, and Peter Palizo patiently waited to speak to the counselor concerning their schedule.

During registration Abigail Robles and Guillermo Aguilar carefully examined their schedule to make sure they had the right courses.

Miss Adela Garcia is assisted in the textbook room by Eliza Zavala.

Waiting impatiently to register for the spring semester are several camera-shy sophomores.

Velma Moran, Marta Santos, and Edna Pina with all their helpers behind await the rush of students who will come for their textbooks.

Student Council Elections

President 1965-1966

GRACIELA SALAZAR
Student Council
Veep 1965-1966

Students waited for their chance to vote, while Roberto Rios was quite busy handing the ballots out to the students.

On February 17, 1965, Martin High held elections for Student Council president. This was a busy day. It kept Edmundo Ramirez, Agustin Navarro, Candy Uribe, Cookie Trevino, and Fernando Montemayor on the ball all day.

Three busy characters during the elections were Roberto Rios, Gilberto Cardenas, and Edmundo Ramirez. These boys really worked hard with the campaigning.

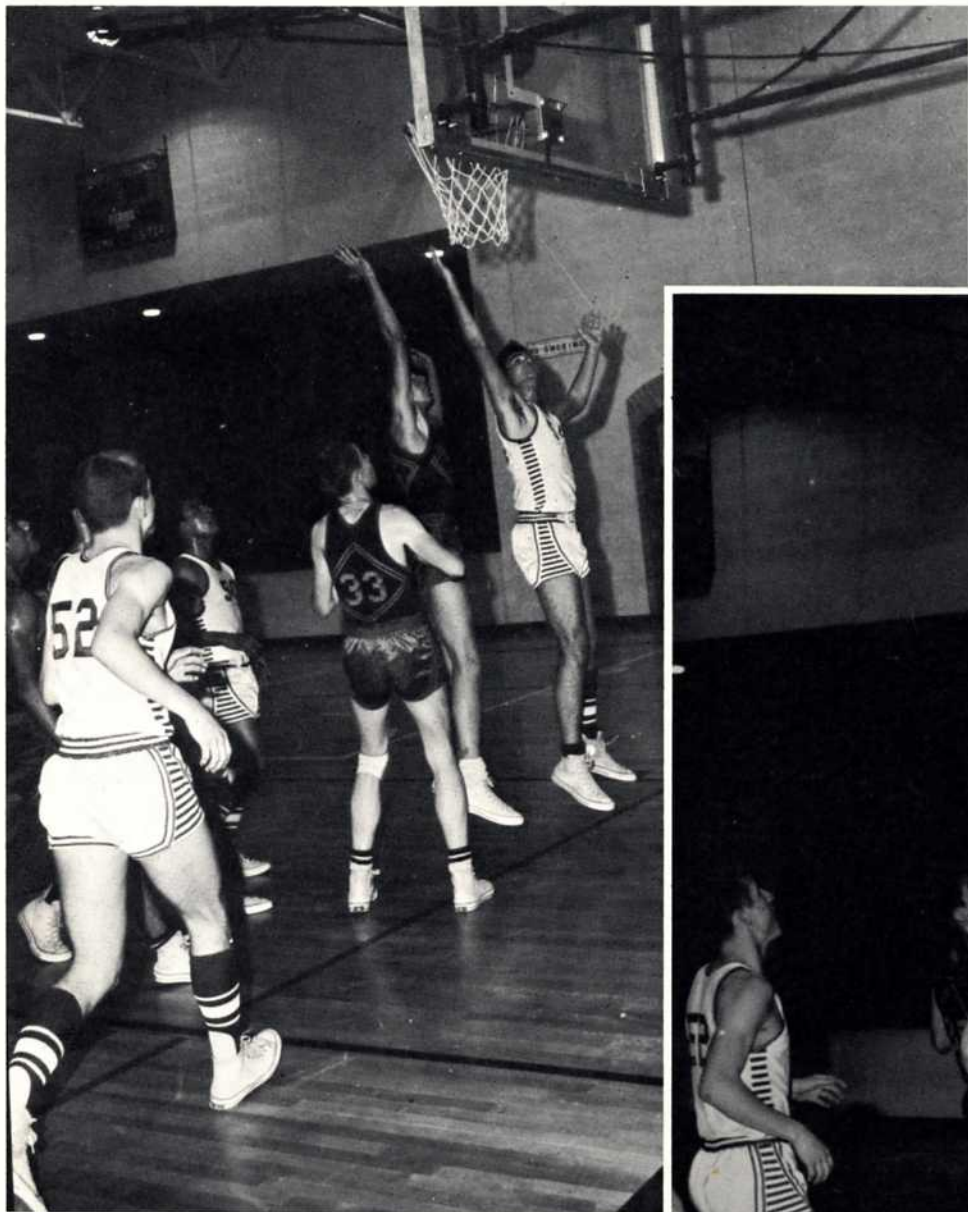

Rushing to the voting booths to vote for the candidates of their choice were Maria Ponce, Maria Teresa Ruiz, Sandra Rodriguez, and Mario Tijerina.

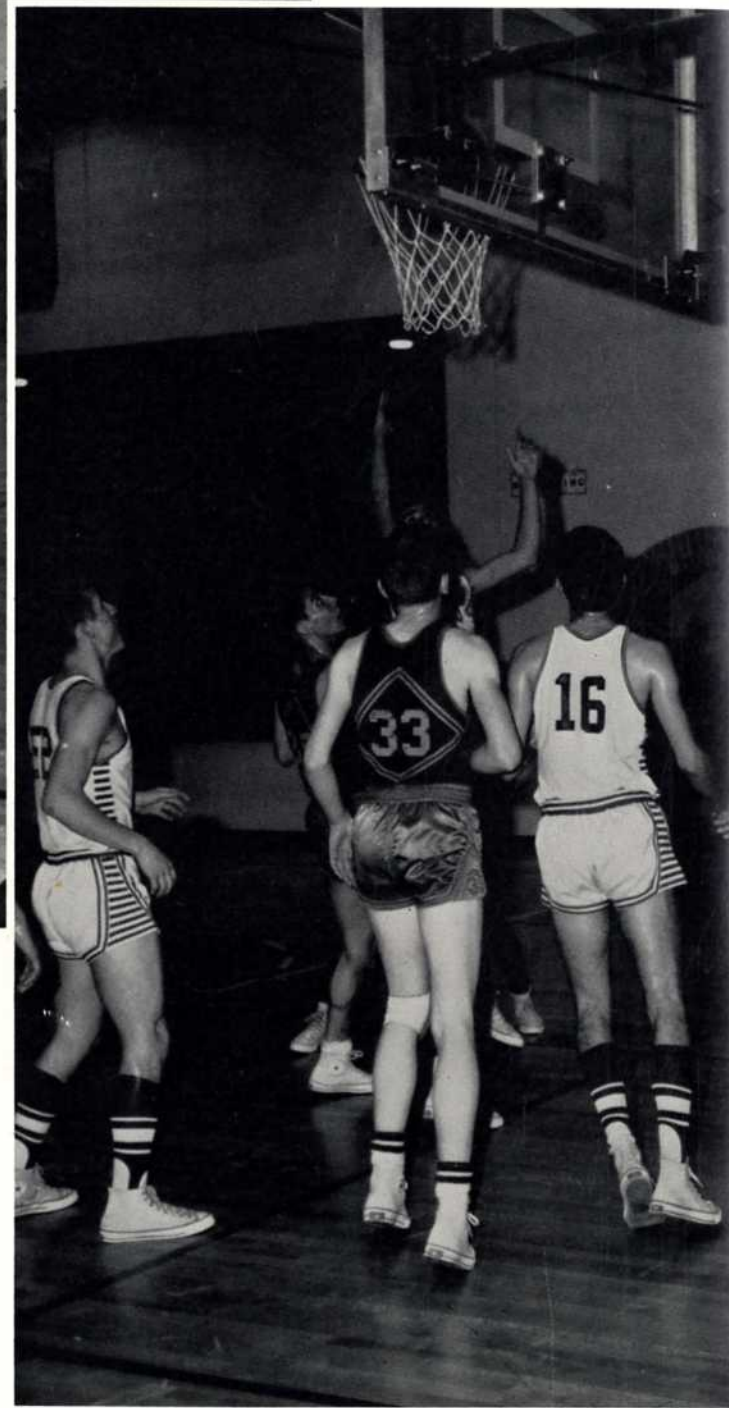

After all had voted, Cookie Trevino, Miss Young, and Agustin Navarro worked tediously with the counting of ballots. Result? Gilbert Cardenas, next year's Student Council president.

Still handing out ballots to the anxious voters are Agustin Navarro and Cookie Trevino. It was a day to remember.

Armando Ramirez reaches for the ball as Clifford Trimmer goes to his aid.

Martin at Its Best in Martin-Nixon Basketball Game

Clemente Salinas reaches for the ball as Homero Rodriguez, Nixon player, tries to get it.

Clemente Salinas throws the ball in the basket as Jose Luis Gamez, Ruben Vela, and Homero Rodriguez watch anxiously.

Some ROTC Drill Team members to perform are Armando Rodriguez, Eduardo Esquivel, Roberto Rios and William Plyler.

In perfect time and precision as always are the Martin High Singing Cadets.

The Martin High Drill Team and cadets decided to cut their hair off in order to pass inspection at the Drill Team competition on February 20th at Shirley Stadium. The Pelones are as follows from top: Antonio A. Navarro; Sammy Flores, Commander of the Pelones; John Tenorio; Cornelio Trevino; and Pelon Army Officer Jorge Sanchez. Second row: Rafael Torres, Pelon Right Guide, Porky Rodriguez, and Pelon Co. A Guidon, Raul Caballero.

Cdt. Drill Team Commander Juan Tenorio diligently works on important drill team data. The Commander must put in many long hours in order to have such an efficient team.

ROTC Sponsors, friends, and an officer, sneaking some very good tamales in the cafeteria. They are Bertha Gomez, Norma Cantu, Irma Talamantes, Lupita Ramiez, Lydia Benavides, and Rolando Flores.

Drill Team's Twenty-Eight Members Are Efficient, Responsible, and Dedicated

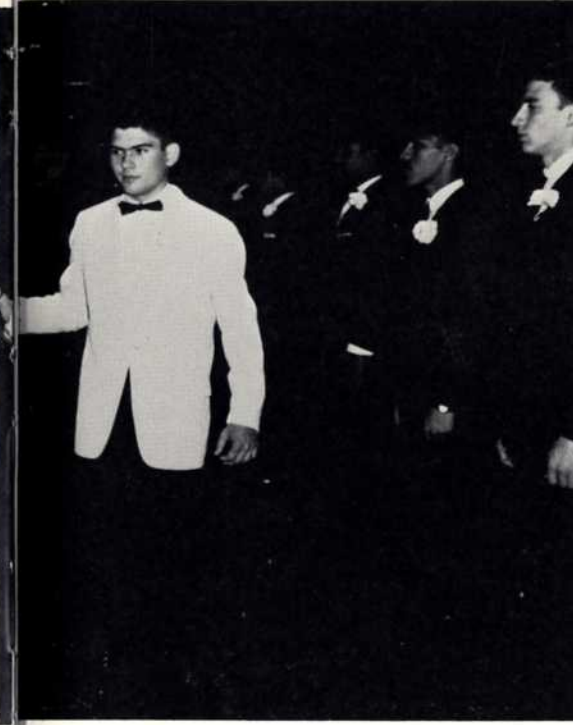

Executing the "line" in a pre-performance practice are Eduardo Esquivel, Roberto Rios, Raul Caballero, Rafael Torres, and William Plyler. This maneuver is done by the "waves," and that is the reason for the blurred effect of drill team members.

Adela Trujillo and her escort Lucio Varela fully enjoyed the Presentation Dance.

PASF Presentation

2. Linda Ibarra and George Haynes admire the wishing well.
1. Sweetheart Lorraine Hicks and Eduardo Vela get ready to dance the first waltz.

Outstanding three year members of the PASF were formally presented at the Annual Presentation Ball. The fourteen girls presented this year were Diana Flores, Rosa Esquivel, Hilda Ramos, Sylvia Gomez, Consuelo Cobos, Lorraine Hicks, Alicia Salinas, Norma Cantu, Linda Ibarra, Julia Moreno, Sylvia Gonzalez, Lydia Benavides, Anna Maria Gonzalez, and Rosalinda Olvieda.

4. Sweetheart Lorraine Hicks was saluted by the R.O.T.C. Honor Guard.
3. Mrs. Uribe and Miss Saenz were chap ones for the presentation dance.

Some PASF'ers making pot holders to raise money for a worthy cause are Norma Rodriguez, Alberta Hundsnurscher and Rosario J. Martinez.

Everybody has fun at the PASF Record Hop.

Berta Gomez, Irma Talamantes, Spencer Oldham, George Zapata and Diana Mendoza are a few PASF members working at the record hop.

PASF Projects

PASF Sweetheart Sandra Joy Guerrero for the year 1964, club president for that year Henry Cavazos and member Joe Arreguin, ride in the George Washington Parade.

Enjoying the PASF Banquet were Robert Snyder, Hilda Ramos, Rosalinda Olvieda, Alicia Salinas, Yolanda Solis, Norma Cantu, and many others.

In the Youth Appreciation Week Parade the participants from the Pan American Student Forum were Rosalinda Olvieda, Lydia Benavides, president, and in the back Lorraine Hicks, Rosario J. Martinez, and Norma Cantu.

PASF performers with winter tourists are Laura Duran, Charlotte Boubel, Ana Maria Gonzalez, Hope Rocha and Rosario Azios. Every year the PASF brings typical songs and dances of Latin American Nations in a program designed to entertain Laredo's winter tourists and acquaint them with the culture of Latin America.

Past PASF singers are Luis Murillo, Javier Montoya, Horacio Rodriguez and Henry Cavazos.

Performing for an assembly were Javier Montoya, Horacio Rodriguez, Yolando Soliz, Consuelo Cobos, Mary Alice Pena, Luis Murillo, and kneeling is Becky Vela.

Rosario Azios performed for the winter tourists at the Chamber of Commerce Lounge by dancing a Spanish "Jota," a lively dance to the rhythm of castanets.

Charlotte Boubel doing one of her twirling stunts.

Anna Maria Gonzalez sings "Cielito Lindo" while Hope Rocha plays the guitar, and both entertained by singing Mexican songs.

Diana Quijano danced one of her popular Mexican dances.

Miss Saenz, Lorraine Hicks, and Rosario Azios are pictured here in Monterrey orphanage. They took clothes to the orphans.

PASF: Active Organization

Associate member of PASF Henry Cavazos gives a talk in the library. Also pictured are Lupita Ramirez and Miss Saenz.

At the bus station getting ready for their trip to Monterrey are PASF members and sponsor. Pictured here are Miss Cabrera, Miss Uribe, Rosalinda Guajardo, Berta Gomez, Lilly Meek, Juanita Barrero, Thelma Ramos, Concepcion Arechiga, Janie Rendon, Carol Byrum, Rosario Azios, Miss Saenz, Concepcion Cobos, Irma Talamantes, Lorraine Hicks, and Julio Sosa.

Hard working members and sponsor of PASF stop to get a picture taken. They are Lydia Benavides, Lupita Ramirez, Spencer Oldham, Alicia Salinas, Rosalinda Olvieda, Henry Cavazos, and Miss Saenz.

The PASF sponsors a posada every year. This year Lupita Ramirez portrays the angel, Eduardo Vela was Joseph, and Lorraine was Mary. Angels were Lydia Benavides, Irma Talamantes, and Berta Gomez.

Some PASF members who sang at the posada were Sylvia Gonzalez, Claudia Garcia, Olga Villarreal, Julia Moreno, Norma Cantu, Elsa Gutierrez, Sylvia Gomez.

Everyone enjoys breaking a pinata. Manuel Aguilar tries, without success to break it.

Everyone who participated in the posada pose for a final picture.

One of Laredo's sights is undoubtedly Lake Casa Blanca, located east of Laredo. Boating, skiing, swimming, and fishing are the main activities which our lake furnishes almost all year around for Laredoans and tourists who visit its excellent picnic grounds.

The lake is constantly growing commercially. Among this year's lake accomplishments are the LIFE fair grounds, the newly built Webb County swimming pool, and the miniature train which runs along the lakeshore. Also located on the Lake grounds is the Laredo Golf Course. One of the city's biggest events is the annual Soap Box Derby held at the lake's Derby Downs.

Fireworks Cause Commotion

Fireworks? Yes but at the wrong time. When the Washington's Birthday Association Fireworks Display caught fire, the Laredo Fire Department performed efficiently. Curious by-standers quickly swarmed to the scene and added to the confusion. The display was being stored in the armory at Martin High School.

Completely unaware of the excitement and working industriously on the Annual Staff teaching Armando Rodriguez to cut pictures was Roberto Rios, while Miguel Angel Hernandez concentrated on a make-up test.

After the confusion created by the fireworks the students were glad to know that a fireworks display would still be held.

One of the Annual Staff's prettiest members, Ana Laura Barrera, poses for this picture with Ricardo Perales. She was one of the senior girls who was presented at the PASF Presentation Ball.
