*Time moves ahead, and so do we;
But sometimes we reluctantly
Release our hold on what is past,
For time moves on much, much too fast.
As we look back, we all agree
The year turned out most favorably.*

*To present days our thoughts do turn;
For newer hopes and joys we yearn.
We yearn for fellowship and fun,
For all the honors to be won.
Today is here for a short stay;
Tomorrow now is on its way.*

*Today you represent the youth
Who grow in knowledge, honor, truth
As you prepare for Martin High.
You will mature as days go by.
What you become will help to show
Just how your school can thrive and grow.
Tomorrow Martin waits to see
How great a Freshman you will be.*

1978
Homecoming
Night

In a pensive mood is Karen Gilbert representing La Pitahaya.

This year's Homecoming Queen Lorraine Sanchez is crowned by Col. Flores while Rudy Medellin looks on.

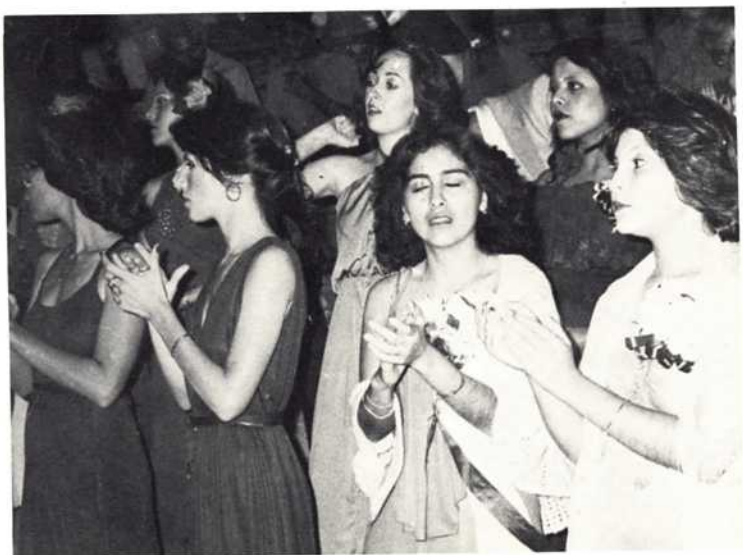

Lorraine promises not to stick Leticia with the pin; in back is Teresa Samaniego.

The top five girls running for Homecoming Queen were Lorraine Sanchez, Laura Torres, Diana de Luna, Oralia Peña, and Dora Garza.

These candidates never lost track of the Tiger action in the field.

Royalty included Laura Torres, first runner-up, Queen Lorraine Sanchez and Oralia Peña, second runner-up.

Pat Castro, Martha San Miguel, and Rosaura Zapico pin their corsages while Diana de Luna is ready to make an entrance.

Class of '68 was honored at Homecoming — Cordy (de Lachica) Valdez sporting the corsage was the '68 Queen.

Bobby's mouth is bigger than his hat.

Clara, don't call us, we'll call you.

Laura using her thinking cap.

Judy looks so happy she must have caught a husband.

There's always room for improvement, Danny.

Is this dressy enough?

"M-m-m good!" says Carmen, CSC president.

Ms. Sora Trevino says, "I'm taller than you are Emma!"

What a pose, Danny!

"Where do I go to now?" asks Cordy.

La Mano Pachona via Mr. J. R. Esparza communicates message to MHS Tigers.

296 Leave her alone, Gil.

Imelda says, "Stop Everything!"

Irresistible!

Which way to the Square Dance?

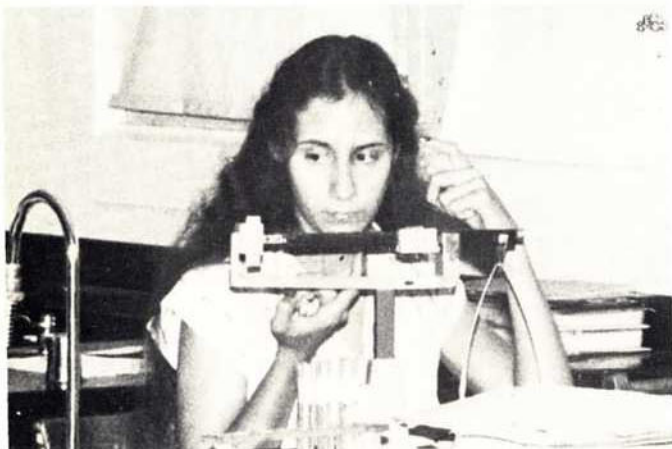

Gil Gaona having one of his daydreams.

Have a seat!

The Band with books instead of instruments???

Let me figure this one out!

Araceli's joke must have been a good one according to Delia's reaction.

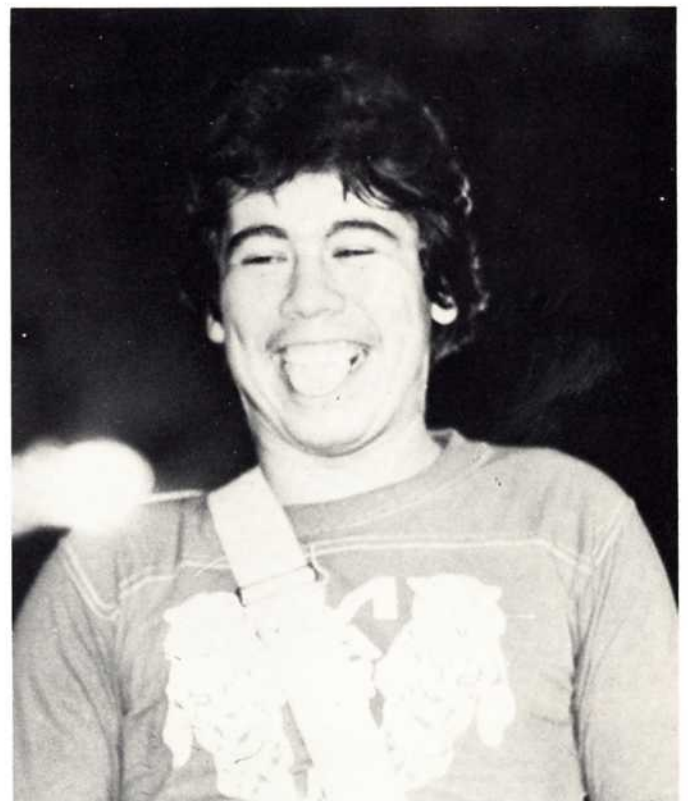

Mike unaware he's surrounded by girls.

Whenever Jesus is absent, Lorraine feels blue.

Honorable Charlie Chan.

Do you want a milk doggie bone, Roberto?

Why didn't someone tell me it was going to be like this in high school?

Is it a student? No! It's Mr. Arreguin, the substitute teacher.

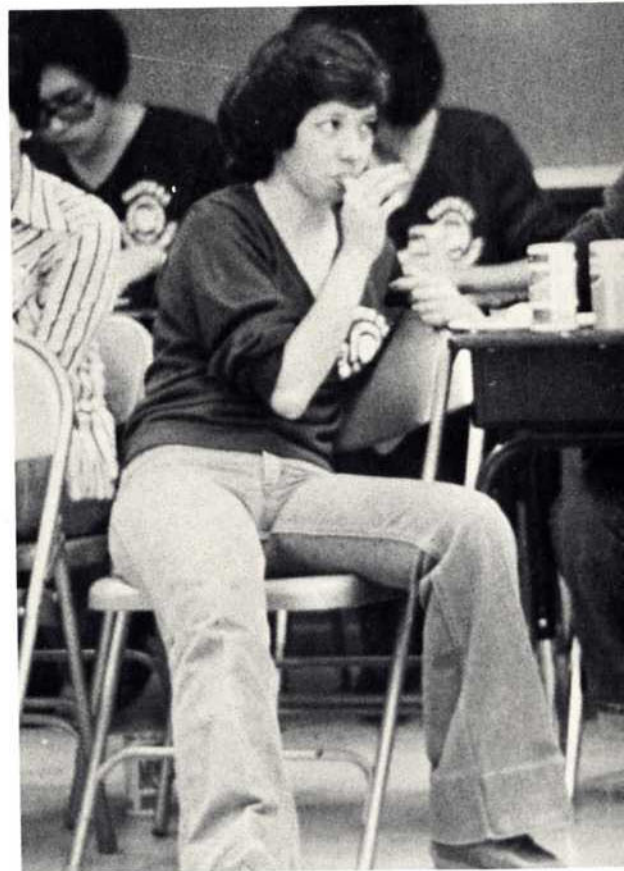

"Papoose" and Juan stroll down the hall.

What a classical pose, Zama!

Mr. Montelngo and Col. Flores pose with this group of pretty girls.

Bertha, it's not nice to suck your thumb in public.

Jama shows off her beautiful brown eyes!

He needs Coast soap to wake up.

"Picoso pero Sabroso!" says Martha.

Now I got you!

About face!

Pile up!

Mork and Mindy

Now, whom should I vote for?

(Left to Right): Carlos Rene Ramirez, Editor; Elva Gonzalez, Photographer; Maria del Carmen Linares, Business Manager; Gloria Casarez, Sales Manager; Araceli Santillan, Assistant Editor; Carlos Perez, Sports Editor.

Staff members worked long and hard hours to put out this year's Pitahaya.

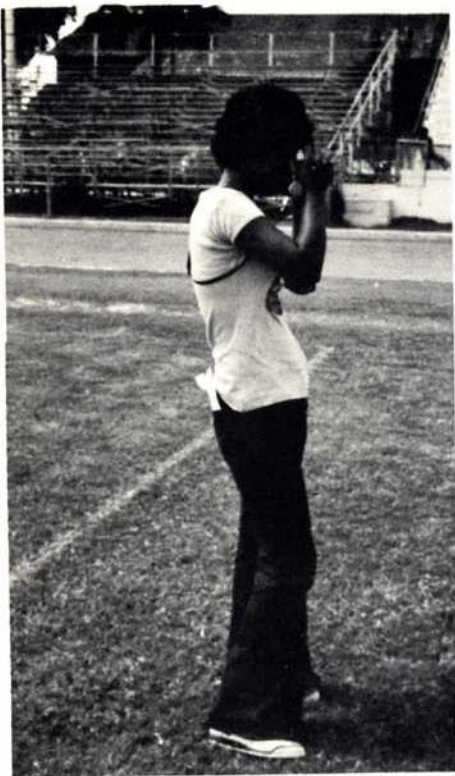

Araceli shows freshman Pitahaya members the ropes.

We take time out from Class Picture Day.

Tere had to look at many pictures before the right ones were chosen.

Elva's readiness and expertise with a camera made it possible to meet deadlines.

NANO, NANO

Carlos Perez alphabetizes the freshmen who took pics.

Karen does some serious brainstorming.

Saul finds himself all tied down.

Loyda finds time to have fun while working on the yearbook.

Mrs. Tijerina's firm hand guided us through the many months to reach our goal.

The price will stay like this until Nov. 14th and then

"Smile, you're on Candid Camera!" says Martha Santillan.

Karen tells another one of her jokes to her attentive audience.

Do you want to get smart with me?

Elsa thinks she can type 50 words a minute, but most of the time she stares into space.

"Do I look busy enough?" asks Cristina.

The only four year members of La Pitahaya are Chavila Ramirez and Saul Garcia.
